American Women Nearing Dream Of Equal Rights

Will Females Then Be Eligible For Draft?

WASHINGTON (AP) — Rep. Martha Griffiths is counting on woman power to propel through the Senate and the state legislatures a constitutional amendment guaranteeing women equal rights with men.

"A lot of things have changed," the Michigan Democrat grinned as she savored a 350-15 victory in the House Monday. She had priced the measure from the Judiciary Committee shelf where it had collected dust for 47 years and engineered the floor victory.

But that was only the beginning, she said, pointing to the Senate where possibly fatal delays await the proposal. And after that, the amendment must be approved by 38 of the 50 legislatures before becoming a part of the Constitution.

Not Optimistic

Other backers are not so optimistic about chances of the amendment, Rep. Shirley Chisholm, D-N.Y., who says she has felt more prejudice as a woman than as a Negro, is fearful that men who run the game of politics still may block the proposal.

She cited, for example, Rep. Emanuel Celler, D-N.Y., 82 and a widower, who sought to have the amendment sent back to committee for more study.

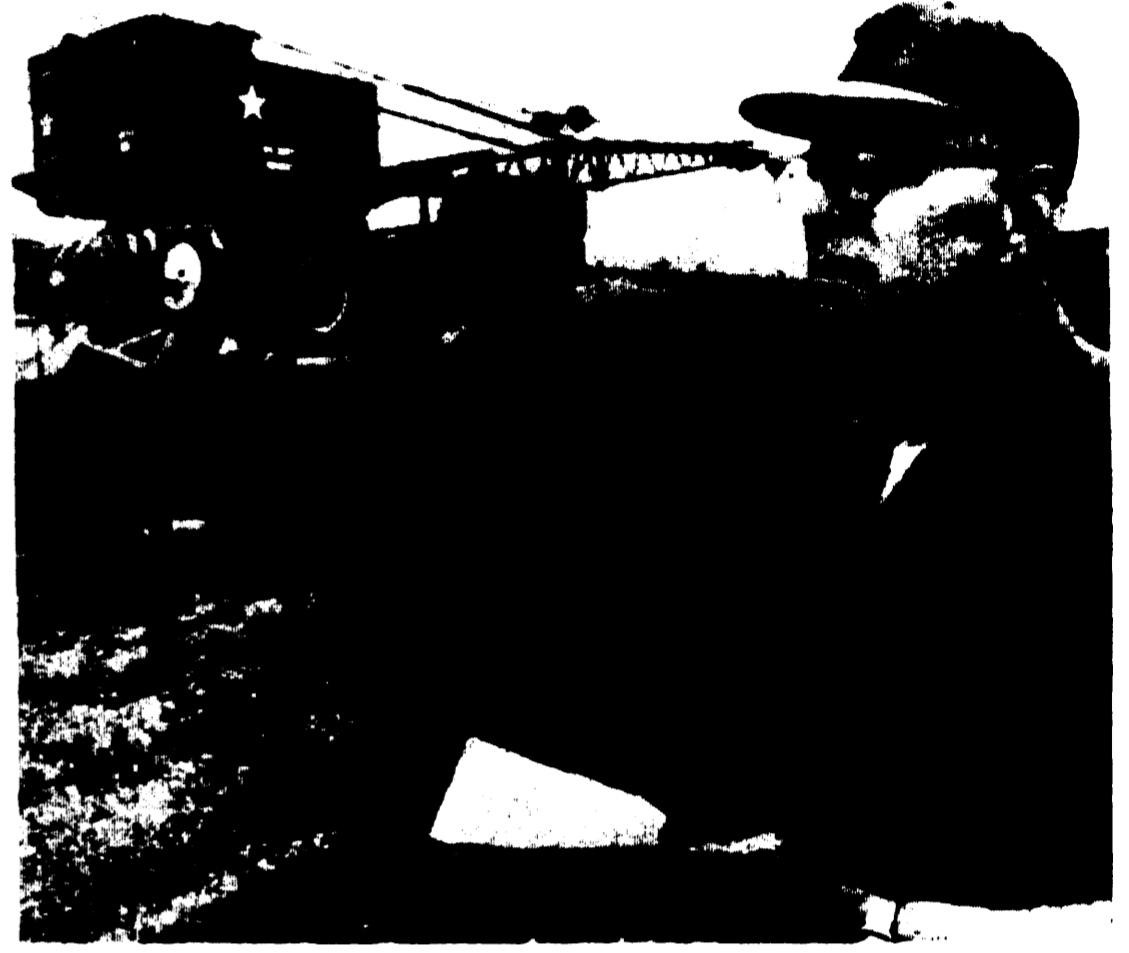

"Let's face it, Mr. Celler has been one of the champions for the civil rights of minorities—but he is like other men in feeling women have a different place and there should be definite limitations on them," Mrs. Chisholm said.

Vive La Difference

And the galleries, packed with women, weren't buying Celler's argument that "there is as much difference between a male and a female as there is between a horse chestnut and a chestnut horse. Vive la difference."

Fears Increase For Safety Of Pair Held By Guerrillas

MONTEVIDEO, Uruguay (AP) — The murder of a kidnapped U.S. official and a new execution threat increased fears today for the lives of Brazilian consul and an American agricultural expert still held by the Tupamaro guerrillas.

A local radio station reported early today that a body had been found near a beachside avenue and possibly was that of the Brazilian diplomat. Police and soldiers searched the area but reported they found no body.

Ransom Deal Refused
The leftist Tupamaros abducted U.S. police adviser Dan A.

Mitrione and Brazilian Consul Aloysio Mares Dias Gornide on July 31 and demanded the release of all political prisoners in Uruguay as ransom. The government refused to deal with the kidnappers, and Mitrione was found shot to death early Monday in an abandoned stolen car.

Last Friday the guerrillas seized another hostage, Claude

L. Fly, 55, of Fort Collins, Colo., an American agricultural expert working for the Uruguayan government.

Execution Hinted

A Uruguayan television station received a note Monday saying the kidnappers would execute Dais Gornide at midnight if the estimated 150 political prisoners were not freed. Government security agencies refused to confirm the authenticity of the note, and the deadline passed with no word from the kidnappers.

The note did not mention Fly.

Congress met in special session Monday and approved President Jorge Pacheco Areco's request for suspension of all individual civil rights for 20 days. This gives the police more freedom in their massive search for the kidnappers and their hostages, which already has resulted in the capture of 100 suspects and several top Tupamaro leaders.

News Censored

The government also broadened press censorship, forbidding newspapers to publish photos related to the Mitrione killing. They are barred from referring to the Tupamaros by name under earlier censorship regulations.

Congress declared Monday a day of mourning for Mitrione, and all businesses and offices were closed.

The opinion was made in response to a query by Rep. Thomas Guastello, D-Utica.

In a typical case, Kelley said, this could result in a difference to the consumers between an interest rate of 45 percent a year and 18 percent a year.

It was noted in the opinion that the practice is common to "several large retailers in the state."

The attorney general ruled that the federal truth in lending act does not affect the Michigan Retail Installment Act and thus all retail sellers in the state must comply with the Michigan law.

The Michigan Retail Installment Buying Act requires that the service charge to the buyer be computed on the principal remaining unpaid after deduction of payments in the preceding period, the ruling held.

Nixon, Kosygin Probably Will Attend UN Meet

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — President Nixon and Soviet Premier Alexei N. Kosygin "very probably" will attend the U.N. General Assembly's 25th anniversary session this fall, an authoritative U.N. source said today.

The assembly will mark its first quarter century during the three-month annual session that starts Sept. 15. Heads of state and government of all 126 member countries have been invited to speak either during the general debate Sept. 17-Oct. 2 or at a special commemorative session to be held Oct. 19-24. Oct. 24, 1945 is the date the U.N. charter took effect.

Bombing Scare Delays Brandt's Trip To Russia

BONN, Germany (AP) — Chancellor Willy Brandt flew off to Moscow today to sign a treaty with the Soviet Union after his plane was delayed for nearly two hours by a telephone call that a bomb was aboard. No bomb was found.

Ruediger Von Weichmar, government spokesman, said the plane was in takeoff position when "two security guards came from the cockpit and told us that we must disembark because there was a bomb scare."

Earlier an Interior Ministry spokesman had said the plane had begun rolling down the runway when it was stopped. This was later cleared up when it appeared he meant the plane had rolled to its takeoff position.

Brandt and his party were taken by bus to a lounge while the search was made.

Other attorneys said the testimony was repetitious. They objected particularly to accounts of the roles of two women defendants in the killings.

Paul Fitzgerald objected successfully six times to Kanarek's questions concerning his client, Patricia Krenwinkel, 22, and vehemently opposed introduction into evidence of a picture of the bloody body of one victim.

"The picture is prejudicial and inflammatory," Fitzgerald said. The judge ruled the picture would not be admitted until Kanarek laid a proper foundation with questioning. Kanarek dropped the subject.

Daye Shann, representing Susan Atkins, 21, objected to a question eliciting testimony about a conversation Mrs. Kanarek said she had with Mas Atkins.

Later, Ronald Hughes, attorney for Leslie Van Houten, 30, told newsmen he felt Kanarek was hurting the defense case.

GOP Introduces Plan To Limit U.S. Spending

WASHINGTON (AP) — Republicans introduced in the House Monday legislation to limit government spending in the current fiscal year to $205.6 billion and automatically reduce appropriations that would push the total over this figure.

"For years Presidents and Congresses have sought to blame each other for big spending and budget deficits," House Republican Leader Gerald R. Ford of Michigan said in a statement. "No matter who wins this political argument, the American taxpayer loses."

He said the proposed legislation would "permit Congress to control the results of its own actions," and promised to press for prompt consideration "so that every member... will have an opportunity to vote the same way he talks on the subject of big spending."

The crowd struggled with a cordon of about 100 police and tried to turn over the prime minister's car. As it drove away a man flung himself on the hood, and others tried to smash the headlights. Three people were arrested.

Missile Fund Showdown Set

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate critics of the Safeguard anti-ballistic missile system attempted in their last full day of debate to dispel claims that expansion of the missiles is needed to spur the Soviet Union into an arms limitation agreement.

A showdown vote on funds for two more ABM sites is scheduled Wednesday, and it appeared that opponents may have picked up enough strength to reverse their one-vote setback of last year.

But Republican Leader Hugh Scott of Pennsylvania declared he will support Safeguard as a minimum response to a growing Soviet missile threat and as a bargaining chip at the strategic arms limitation (SALT) talks in Vienna.

Sen. J. W. Fulbright, D-Ark., a leading opponent, acknowledged "the bargaining chip argument distracts us from the argument Safeguard simply will not work."

Sen. Gordon Allott, R-Colo., chairman of the Republican Policy Conference, said Safeguard is essential to meaningful negotiations with the Soviets and defended its deployment as a "restrained response to grave threats."

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. (AP) — Army Capt. Ernest Medina says he saw 250 Viet Cong troops, including women and children carrying weapons and their dead, withdrawing toward the village of My Lai shortly before the alleged massacre there in March 1968.

Medina, in Albuquerque for a fund-raising speech Monday night, is charged with responsibility for the deaths of 175 civilians at My Lai. He spoke before a crowd of about 300 in Civic Auditorium. Admission was $5.

He said the village was described by intelligence as fortified and as having been Communist-controlled for many years.

Medina said some of the women and children withdrawing toward the village were unarmed. He said they were allowed to escape in the direction of the village because of a 2 1/2 hour delay in receiving clearance from the South Vietnamese government to bombard the area with artillery.

He said he was under a military court order not to discuss other events of that day.

Medina, who commanded the company that entered My Lai, said authorities have spent some $3 million investigating the incident and that the Army has refused his requests for money to conduct investigations for his own defense.

Nerve Gas Train Moves On; Army Ruling Out Danger

By The Associated Press
Two trains carrying nerve gas described by an Army spokesman as "no more dangerous than a load of coal," passed slowly through Georgia and South Carolina today and headed toward the seacoast, drawing little attention in the trackside communities.

One train from Kentucky moved into South Carolina from the north, passed through Spartanburg and headed toward an expected linkup with the other train later today near Clinton, S.C.

Few Spectators
Only a handful of spectators gathered in the rain at Spartanburg to watch as the train halted for 40 minutes. The Army gave no explanation for the stop.

The other train, from Anniston, Ala., was entered Calhoun Falls, S.C., after passing through the east Georgia cities of Athens and Elberton. It also attracted little attention as it moved through the morning mist.

Lack Of Interest
The lack of interest was in sharp contrast to the controversy and threats of legal action after the Army announced it would dump the gas in the Atlantic 282 miles east of Cape Kennedy, Fla. The plan apparently still faced a court challenge from that state.

"We are going to sue the Army tomorrow," Nathaniel P. Reed, chairman of Florida's Air and Water Pollution Control Board, said Monday night.

418 Vaults Used
The 418 concrete and steel jacketed vaults of nerve gas rockets left Monday from Army depots at Richmond, Ky., and Anniston, Ala., for Sunny Point, N.C. Later in the week the Army plans to load the vaults aboard a barge, tow it to sea and scuttle it.

Residents Calm
Col. S. M. Burney, commander of the Anniston depot, said the vaults are "safer than coal because a coal train can wreck and this one can't."

Residents of many Georgia communities through which the train from Anniston passed, Monday seemed to share the Army's confidence.

"Nobody is afraid of this train because back during World War II we all saw some spookier things come down these tracks," C. S. Stephens said. He is the manager of a concrete plant at Tallapoosa, Ga., the first Georgia town through which the train passed.

The Lexington train was almost ignored by residents of the Eastern Kentucky mountains as only handfuls of people gathered at crossings near the larger towns as the train went by.

Crews Changed
The Anniston train changed crews at Griffin and was halted a few minutes north of Macon for repairs to a broken air line before moving slowly through the city toward Athens.

Mayor Ronnie Thompson of Macon, who had opposed the shipment, then changed his mind and among those watching. He said he was relieved the train was through his city.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Two senators, fearing a rash of pleas for federal funds to bail out cash-stricken government contractors, sought today to draw legal boundaries around the Lockheed Corp.'s plea for $200 million interim financing to complete the C5 supertransport program.

Sens. William Proxmire, D-Wisc., and Richard S. Schweiker, R-Pa., sought cosponsors for an amendment to restrict use of the funds requested by the Pentagon.

In letters to their colleagues, the senators said their proposal would make sure the planes are built and employees kept at work without rewarding Lockheed for what they called mismanagement.

Their effort is in the latest step in a long controversy involving costly overruns in the C5 program. Lockheed claims it needs $200 million to keep the program going.

The senators' amendment would require payment of the funds in fiscal year 1971 only if approved either by the Armed Services Board of Contract Appeals or a court.

Or if court-appointed trustees in a bankruptcy or reorganization situation determined it, then all or part of the $200 million could be paid if necessary to insure delivery of 42 planes due June 30, 1971.

Bailing their amendment the "keep building the planes proposal," Proxmire and Schweiker said the $200 million request is in dispute because the Air Force insists it doesn't owe the money while the Pentagon says an additional $800 million will be needed to complete the 81-plane program.

Troops, Arms Reduction In Europe Eyed

LONDON (AP) — Prospects for East-West talks to reduce troops and arms in Europe remain remote despite the new Soviet-West German nonaggression treaty, diplomatic sources said today.

Informants said it would be at least four months before the North Atlantic Treaty Organization responds to the latest Soviet proposal for talks on mutual reduction of arms in Europe.

Although Bonn and Moscow are renouncing the use of force against each other and recognizing existing borders in Europe, troops and arms on both sides of the cold war frontiers are likely to remain at existing levels indefinitely.

Talks on mutual arms reductions are proposed for a European security conference, an idea long pushed by the Kremlin and the Soviet bloc.

The Warsaw Pact nations at a meeting in Budapest in June revised their proposed agenda for a European security conference and agreed for the first time to include talks on "the reduction of foreign armed forces on the territories of European states."

Sources here said the NATO allies would not respond before their foreign ministers meet in Brussels in December.

Two neutral European governments—Austria and Finland—also have been actively pressing for a European security conference. Both have offered their capital cities for preparatory talks. But the sources here said these proposals would also have to await the NATO meeting in December.

Some NATO nations, notably the United States and Britain, have long been skeptical of the value of a European security conference without thorough preparation.

Fears Increase For Safety Of Pair Held By Guerrillas

MONTEVIDEO, Uruguay (AP) — The murder of a kidnapped U.S. official and a new execution threat increased fears today for the lives of Brazilian consul and an American agricultural expert still held by the Tupamaro guerrillas.

A local radio station reported early today that a body had been found near a beachside avenue and possibly was that of the Brazilian diplomat. Police and soldiers searched the area but reported they found no body.

Kelley Issues Ruling

Service Charge Plan Will Save Millions

LANSING (AP) — Atty. Gen. Frank Kelley today handed down a ruling on service charges by retailers that he said will save Michigan consumers "between $5 million and $10 million a year."

Kelley termed it "a landmark decision for Michigan" and also for states that have retail installment sales acts similar to Michigan's.

Kelley said the practice by certain retailers of charging the buyer the time price differential (service charge) on the beginning monthly balance is illegal.

The Michigan Retail Installment Buying Act requires that the service charge to the buyer be computed on the principal remaining unpaid after deduction of payments in the preceding period, the ruling held.

Manson Turns On Lawyer Defending Him At Trial

LOS ANGELES (AP) — A rift appears to be developing in the defense team in the Sharon Tate murder trial. Three lawyers have accused Charles M. Manson's attorney of trying to "dump" three women codefendants to help Manson's case.

Manson, the shaggy-haired clan leader accused of ordering the women to kill Miss Tate and six others, joined the attack Monday on his own attorney, Irving Kanarek.

Objects To Attorney
"I object to my attorney," Manson told the judge. "He's not speaking for me."

The complaints about Kanarek came during his sixth day of cross-examination of the state's star witness, Linda Kasabian, who Monday was granted immunity from prosecution. He hammered away at details of the night a year ago when the beautiful actress and four others were slain at her Bel Air mansion.

Seen Hurting Defense
Later, Ronald Hughes, attorney for Leslie Van Houten, 20, told newsmen he felt Kanarek was hurting the defense case

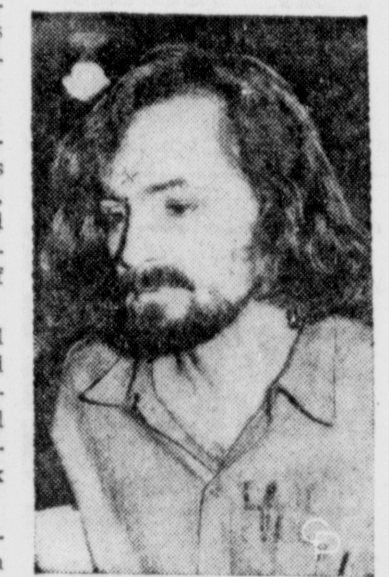

mony was repetitious. They objected particularly to accounts of the roles of two women defendants in the killings.

Objects Successfully
Paul Fitzgerald objected successfully six times to Kanarek's questions concerning his client, Patricia Krenwinkel, 22, and vehemently opposed introduction into evidence of a picture of the bloody body of one victim.

"The picture is prejudicial and inflammatory," Fitzgerald said. The judge ruled the picture would not be admitted until Kanarek laid a proper foundation with questioning. Kanarek dropped the subject.

Daye Shinn, representing Susan Atkins, 21, objected to a question eliciting testimony about a conversation Mrs. Kasabian said she had with Miss Atkins.

Other attorneys said the testi-

Children, VC, Women Armed At My Lai Site

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. (AP) — Army Capt. Ernest Medina says he saw 250 Viet Cong troops, including women and children carrying weapons and their dead, withdrawing toward the village of My Lai shortly before the alleged massacre there in March 1968.

Medina, in Albuquerque for a fund-raising speech Monday night, is charged with responsibility for the deaths of 175 civilians at My Lai. He spoke before a crowd of about 300 in Civic Auditorium. Admission was $3.

He said the village was described by intelligence as fortified and as having been Communist-controlled for many years.

Medina said some of the women and children withdrawing toward the village wore uniforms. He said they were allowed to escape in the direction of the village because of a 2½-hour delay in receiving clearance from the South Vietnamese government to bombard the area with artillery.

He said he was under a military court order not to discuss other events of that day.

Medina, who commanded the company that entered My Lai, said authorities have spent some $3 million investigating the incident and that the Army has refused his requests for money to conduct investigations for his own defense.

That is why he is appealing to the public for defense funds, he said.

Senators Ask Limit On Funds To Contractors

WASHINGTON (AP) — Two senators, fearing a rash of pleas for federal funds to bail out cash-stricken government contractors, sought today to draw legal boundaries around the Lockheed Corp.'s plea for $200 million interim financing to complete the C5 supertransport program.

Sens. William Proxmire, D-Wisc., and Richard S. Schweiker, R-Pa., sought cosponsors for an amendment to restrict use of the funds requested by the Pentagon.

In letters to their colleagues, the senators said their proposal would make sure the planes are built and employees kept at work without rewarding Lockheed, for what they called mismanagement.

Their effort is in the latest step in a long controversy involving costly overruns in the C5 program. Lockheed claims it needs $200 million to keep the program going.

The senators' amendment would require payment of the funds in fiscal year 1971 only if approved either by the Armed Services Board of Contract Appeals or a court.

Or, if court-appointed trustees in a bankruptcy or reorganization situation determined it, then all or part of the $200 million could be paid if necessary to insure delivery of 42 planes due June 30, 1971.

Billing their amendment the "keeping building the planes proposal," Proxmire and Schweiker said the $200 million request is in dispute because the Air Force insists it doesn't owe the money while the Pentagon says an additional $800 million will be needed to complete the 81-plane program.

Medina said some of the women and children withdrawing toward the village wore uniforms. He said they were allowed to escape in the direction of the village because of a 2½-hour delay in receiving clearance from the South Vietnamese government to bombard the area with artillery.

He said he was under a military court order not to discuss other events of that day.

Nerve Gas Train Moves On; Army Ruling Out Danger

Two trains carrying nerve gas described by an Army spokesman as "no more dangerous than a load of coal," passed slowly through Georgia and South Carolina today and headed toward the seacoast, drawing little attention in the trackside communities.

One train from Kentucky moved into South Carolina from the north, passed through Spartanburg and headed toward an expected linkup with the other train later today near Clinton, S.C.

Only a handful of spectators gathered in the rain at Spartanburg to watch as the train halted for 40 minutes. The Army gave no explanation for the stop.

The other train, from Anniston, Ala., was entered Calhoun Falls, S.C., after passing through the east Georgia cities of Athens and Elberton. It also attracted little attention as it moved through the morning mist.

Lack Of Interest
The lack of interest was in sharp contrast to the controversy and threats of legal action after the Army announced it would dump the gas in the Atlantic 282 miles east of Cape Kennedy, Fla. The plan apparently still faced a court challenge from that state.

"We are going to sue the Army tomorrow," Nathaniel P. Reed, chairman of Florida's Air and Water Pollution Control Board, said Monday night.

418 Vaults Used
The 418 concrete and steel jacketed vaults of nerve gas rockets left Monday from Army depots at Richmond, Ky., and Anniston, Ala. for Sunny Point, N.C. Later in the week the Army plans to load the vaults aboard a barge, tow it to sea and scuttle it.

Col. S. M. Burney, commander of the Anniston depot, said the vaults are "safer than coal because a coal train can wreck and this one can't."

Residents Calm
Residents of many Georgia communities through which the train from Anniston passed, Monday seemed to share the Army's confidence.

"Nobody is afraid of this train because back during World War II we all saw some spookier things come down these tracks," C. S. Stephens said. He is the manager of a concrete plant at Tallapoosa, Ga., the first Georgia town through which the train passed.

The Lexington train was almost ignored by residents of the Eastern Kentucky mountains as only handfuls of people gathered at crossings near the larger towns as the train went by.

Crews Changed
The Anniston train changed crews at Griffin and was halted a few minutes north of Macon for repairs to a broken air line before moving slowly through the city toward Athens.

Mayor Ronnie Thompson of Macon, who had opposed the shipment, then changed his mind, was among those watching. He said he was relieved the train was through his city.

Labor Action Unit Slashing Budget; UAW Funds Cited

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Alliance for Labor Action, born out of the late Walter Reuther's bitter fight with the AFL-CIO, has slashed its financing in half because of money troubles plaguing the United Auto Workers, informed sources confirmed today.

The cutback will reduce the alliance's annual income to some $2 million a year, sources said.

The organization was financed primarily by the Auto Workers, Teamsters and several smaller affiliates. Its purpose was to organize the unorganized and conduct social programs.

Population Decline Expensive For U.P.

Citing preliminary 1970 census figures which show the Upper Peninsula lost population, Rep. Dominic J. Jacobetti (D-Negaunee) today called for some "basic plans of development that will reverse the out-migration of Upper Peninsula citizens."

"The time to start is now to reverse a similar trend in the figures that will be published when the 1980 census is taken," Jacobetti said.

"It is time that we had less inroads, publicity through department people and federal do-gooders," he said.

Jacobetti said he is preparing a master plan for economic development for the entire Upper Peninsula because "if the entire area above the Straits has a growing economy it will greatly enhance the economic gains of his district."

Census Is Down

Jacobetti, who is unopposed for reelection in the Michigan House of Representatives, pointed out that the preliminary population figures for the U. P. show a decrease of 7,776 persons or 2.5 per cent from the 305,984 reported in the 1960 census.

For the state, the preliminary 1970 count (which is not completed for Wayne County) will show an estimated population of 8,850,000, which is an increase of 1,026,000 or 13.1 per cent over 1960.

Jacobetti said the financial loss to the U. P. by failing to keep abreast of the rest of the

Sault Accepts Census Plunge

SAULT STE. MARIE—The City of Sault Ste. Marie has given up on its people recount.

City Manager Richard L. Larson said that a recheck of preliminary census figures for the city which showed a huge drop of about 4,000 population as reasonably accurate.

"We gave it a good battle," Larson said, "but it looks as though the preliminary census figures are about right." He estimated the revenue loss to the city at about $160,000 per year.

state "concerns me greatly."

The U. P. share of total state population decreased from 3.91 per cent in 1960 to 3.37 per cent in 1970 (Preliminary) and as a result the U. P. portion of state collected-locally shared taxes will decrease, Jacobetti pointed out.

Loss $393,000
In 1969-70, the state distributed $167.2 million from these sources and Upper Peninsula units of government received $8,563,000.

In fiscal 1970-71, the state will distribute to local governments an estimated $183.1 million, but from these source the U. P. units will receive only an estimated $6,170,000.

Thus, despite the $16 million increase from fiscal 1970 to

Auto Accident Injures Three

An automobile accident at 2:40 Monday afternoon on U.S. 2 and County Road C-45 caused slight injuries to three people.

Wanda Willis, 23, Rapid River; Brenda Chenier, 19, Dayton, Ohio; and David Chenier, 16, Rte. 1, Gladstone, all received bumps and bruises and sought their own treatment.

State police officers said that Wanda Willis, the driver of the car, was attempting to make a right turn off of U.S. 2 when the car went into the ditch and tipped on its side. She was ticketed for violation of the basic speed law.

Briefly Told

Delta Chapter 118, and Escanaba Commandery 47, K. T., will meet at 7:30 p. m. Thursday at the Masonic Temple. Order of the Red Cross, and Knight of Malta will be conferred on candidates by the Commandery degree staff. Refreshments will be served after the meetings.

Divorces granted in Circuit Court Monday by Judge Bernard H. Davidson went to Judy A. Coolman from Roger Coolman and Sylvia I. Niemi from Toivo Niemi.

fiscal 1971, Jacobetti continued, the total amount that will be distributed to the Upper Peninsula will be about $393,000 less than in fiscal 1970 because of the decrease in its share of total state population.

Jacobetti said the estimated 1970-71 distribution will be $20.69 per capita, compared to $21.45 in 1969-70, on revenue from sales, income and intangibles taxes.

The income distribution, he said, would be $16.61 to cities, villages and townships and $4.08 to counties on a per capita basis.

Three Gainers

Only three counties in the Upper Peninsula showed gains in population—Delta, Baraga and Marquette. Only Baraga and Marquette County will realize more money, according to Jacobetti's figures, because the percentage of gain in Delta County is still below the state percentage increase.

"If the Upper Peninsula is to maintain its position in the economic growth rate of the state, it should have had an approximate 13 or 14 per cent population growth in the last 10 years in all 15 counties," Jacobetti said.

The Negaunee representative also warned that the figures he cites "do not include motor vehicle highway fund revenues (gas and weight taxes) which also have a population factor in their distribution and 'Upper Peninsula counties, cities and villages will incur a decrease in road and street funds available to them.'"

Delta Lake Gets Tiger Muskies

The Department of Natural Resources reported today that tiger muskies have been stocked in Gooseneck Lake of Delta County.

Officials said 1,500 tiger muskies averaging 4.25 inches in length were released in the lake. The lake was one of two in the Upper Peninsula to be stocked with tiger muskies.

The DNR also reported that Camp 41 Lake in Delta County was stocked with a total of 5,000 largemouth bass. About 3,500 largemouths averaging two inches in length were released at one time and the second plant included about 1,500 largemouths averaging 4.5 inches.

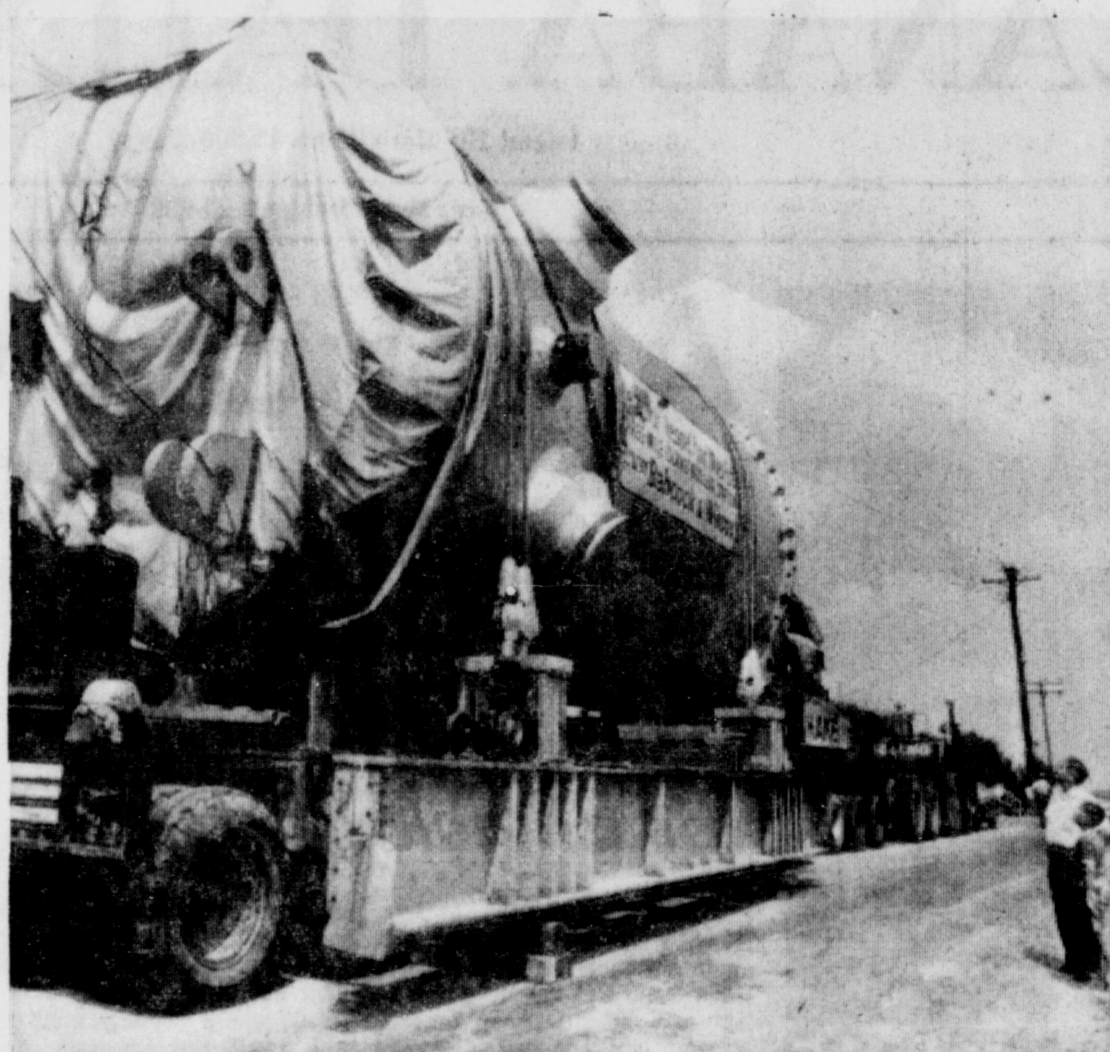

In Schoolcraft County, 2,700 largemouths averaging 3.5 inches long were released in Bluegill Lake and 300 of the same size fish released in No Name Lake. Base Lake in Luce County received 2,000 splake and Luce County's Little Perch Lake was planted with 1,000 largemouths.

Burglars Hit Penney Store

The J. C. Penney Store, 1018 Ludington St., was broken into sometime during the night and $17 from a collection fund for an employee was taken, according to a report received by the City Police Department at 8:30 a.m. today.

Officers said that the burglars entered the building by removing a screen on one of the windows, breaking the window to open the latch and then propping the window open.

The incident is still under investigation.

King's Widow Takes Issue With Magazine

NEW YORK (AP) — Three associates of the late Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. and his widow have taken issue with a Time magazine account of a 1964 meeting between King and FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover.

The three colleagues of the slain civil rights worker branded as "totally false" Time's report that Hoover confronted King with wiretaps revealing King's alleged extramarital activities.

Coretta S. King said in a statement Monday from Atlanta that the Time story "does not correspond" with what her husband told her.

Time, in discussing author John Williams' new book about King, "The King God Didn't Save," said that Hoover "lectured" King on his morals and suggested he tone down his criticism of the FBI.

The Rev. Ralph David Abernathy, King's successor as head of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference; the Rev. Andrew Young and the Rev. Walter E. Fauntroy said in a joint statement Monday:

"All three of us were present during the entire discussion and at no point did Mr. Hoover lecture Dr. King or even comment on his personal life ... Time

On To Iowa

The City of Manistique, which hasn't had too much to cheer about in the past several years from its high school athletic teams, has a winner going for it on the baseball field this summer.

It's only a "small fry" team of 12-year-old boys, but the Manistique Little Leaguers are strictly "big league" as far as the area and, in fact, the entire Upper Peninsula is concerned. A victory over Appleton Northside Kiwanis last Saturday at Chippewa Falls, Wis., sent Manistique into one of four Central States division tournaments at Des Moines, Iowa. Manistique will face a team from Grand Island, Neb., Thursday afternoon with the winner advancing to the finals Saturday. Two victories would bring Manistique within two games — at Kokomo, Ind., the following weekend in the Regional tournament — of the prized trip to Williamsport, Pa., for the Little League World Series. Escanaba's 1957 team is the only U. P. team ever to play in the World Series.

In advancing to the Des Moines tournament, Manistique has reeled off seven straight victories — beating Munising, Menominee, Lake of the Clouds, Bessemer, Duluth, Minn., Rothschild-Schofield-Weston from suburban Wausau, Wis., and Appleton. Three times over the seven games — against Lake of the Clouds, Duluth and Appleton — Manistique has overcome deficits to win, the true mark of a champion. A lesser team could have given up after trailing 4-0 in the first inning like Manistique did to Appleton.

Baseball is a game of inches, a game of skill, determination, poise and, perhaps, luck, particularly in a tournament where one defeat is fatal. And so there is no single reason for Manistique's success, but the team has been impressive in the field and at the plate and the pitching is sound, if not spectacular. In seven games, Manistique has scored 49 runs, an average of seven per game in tournament play where pitching often is dominant. The fielding has been exceptional. At Chippewa Falls, Manistique's two opponents — good teams from larger Wisconsin communities — made a total of 11 errors. Manistique had only one in 12 innings, a better ratio than most major league teams.

The tournament at Des Moines, of course, is another tournament. The teams from Grand Island, Neb., Commerce, Okla., and Fort Des Moines, Iowa, also have all-winning records. And there can be only one winner each weekend.

But Manistique can be assured of the support of the entire Upper Peninsula, win or lose. The boys and their coaches have done themselves proud.

Lipstick: A Job Hazard
 Near the end of her lunch hour, a stenographer sat down in the company lounge to put on lipstick. But she lost her balance and fell, suffering a back injury. Could she collect workmen's compensation?

The company insisted that the girl was not entitled to compensation because she was not "on the job" when hurt. Nevertheless, a court upheld her claim.

"Applying cosmetics was not an abandonment of her employment," said the judge. "It added to her comfort and self-esteem, and thereby permitted her to more efficiently concentrate upon her duties."

Generally speaking, workmen's compensation covers injuries that occur not only during the work itself but also during other activities closely related to the job. For example, it applies while an employee is getting a drink of water or going to the lavatory.

In fact, workmen's compensation may apply even before the day's work has begun. Take this case:

A hotel waitress, arriving early, headed first for the powder room to change into working shoes. On the way, she slipped and broke her arm. Even though she had not yet been on the job, she was held entitled to workmen's compensation — because changing her shoes was so closely related to her work.

However, the law usually will not approve a compensation claim if the victim's activity was in violation of company rules and regulations.

In another case, a bakery worker was injured while trying to force open a tight window. He claimed later that the room had been stuffy, and that he needed some fresh air to help him work better.

However, there happened to be a company rule against anyone opening windows without the permission of the foreman. Accordingly, a court ruled that the claimant was not entitled to compensation. The court said he could not logically be considered "on the job" while doing something that his employer had specifically forbidden.

Construction has started on the $419,249 low income family housing development in Menominee. Murray Enterprises, Inc., of Minneapolis, is the general contractor and three area firms will perform sub-contract work. The 24 units will include four units with two bedrooms, 16 with three bedrooms, and four with four bedrooms.

The first hole-in-one in the two year history of the Indianhead Mountain Golf Course at Wakefield was registered by a 41-year-old golfer from Barrington Hills, Ill., Monday. Richard Wood, who said he has been golfing for about 25 years, had the thrill of his golf career when he drove the ball into the cup on the 167-yard fifth hole — a challenging dog leg. Wood said he used a five iron to accomplish the feat, which was also a first for him. Wood, who was visiting Wakefield for the first time, wound up with a one under par 34.

SNIPER FIRE

Sportsmen Shoot It Out On Guns Issue

By JOHN CHAMBERLAIN

How powerful are the sportsmen of America, the legion of those bronzed, out-of-doors characters who like to hunt in the fall, do a little trapshooting in the spring, and compete in rifle and pistol shooting meets the year round?

They may not be an overwhelming pressure group statistically, but they claim some extremely significant political kills in recent months. They take full credit for providing the margin that licked astronaut John Glenn, an exponent of gun legislation, in the Ohio Democratic Senatorial primary. And they will tell you that it was their crucial votes that made liberal Ralph Yarborough of Texas a lame-duck Senator.

So it is no joke to Senator Joseph Tydings of Maryland that the gun enthusiasts of his state have organized something called CAT (Citizens Against Tydings), which hopes to retire him for having sponsored an extreme gun registration and licensing bill. There are variants of CAT all over the country. In Connecticut it is CAD (or Citizens Against Dodd), in Pennsylvania it is CAS (for Citizens Against Scott), in Montana it is CAM (Citizens Against Mansfield). Senator Scott has practically gone down on his knees to say he made a mistake in voting for gun control legislation in 1968, but it isn't doing him much good. The Pennsylvania sportsmen, who are numerous in the Appalachian back country, claim they beat Senator Joe Clark because of his gun stand, and they want to drive home the lesson by giving even so repentant a character as Hugh Scott a bit of a scare.

The populous State of Connecticut is not the best hunting territory in the country, but its gun enthusiasts have a special thing going for them. It so happens that Connecticut is the small arms and ammunition center of the U.S. The "big three" in Connecticut are Colt's Firearms in Hartford, the Winchester division of Olin-Mathieson in New Haven, and Remington, a du Pont subsidiary, in Bridgeport.

In addition to these, there are numerous smaller companies — High Standard, Marlin, Sturm-Ruger, Mosberg. And just over the state line in Springfield, Mass., there is Smith and Wesson. Together these companies employ a fairly big chunk of Connecticut labor, skilled workers who do not want to be done out of their jobs. So the economic issue combines with the social issue in Connecticut to make advocacy of strict gun legislation a hazard for the politician.

The Democrats are having bad enough trouble in Connecticut this year because of party infighting. But their woes are complicated because all three candidates for U.S. Senator in the Democratic primary — millionaire Alphonse Donahue, the Reverend Joe Duffey (national head of Americans for Democratic Action), and Edward Marcus — are, in varying degrees, not trusted by the gun lovers. Nor is Emilio Daddario, the Democratic candidate for Governor, who has sponsored gun legislation as a member of the U.S. House of Representatives. The gun people are, of course, very much against the present U.S. Senator, Tom Dodd, who is running as an independent. This tends to push them into the Republican embrace for the fall. Republican State Senator John Lupton, one primary candidate for the U.S. Senatorial slot, has always been the sportsmen's friend. The other Senatorial aspirant, Representative Lowell Weicker, has not been anti-gun, and Tom Meskill, the Republican organization's choice for Governor, is willing to listen to the sportsmen's story.

The gun people do not take any position as a group in the primaries. After all, they must preserve a certain maneuverability for the November final. Nonetheless, their primary choice as individuals can seriously affect the November outcome. If John Lupton, a down-the-line Nixon man with a conservative record, should, by

Lenore To Face Tough Campaign, Governor Admits

LAKE OF THE OZARKS, Mo. (AP) — Gov. William Milliken of Michigan said Tuesday he thinks Lenore Romney faces "a tough campaign" in her bid to unseat Democratic Sen. Philip A. Hart.

"Certainly anything is possible," the GOP governor who will also be running this fall told reporters during a news conference at the National Governors' Conference here.

The governor was asked about Mrs. Romney's showing the Republican primary last week in which she polled 52 per cent of the vote against a conservative challenger.

He attributed it to the low turnout and to the controversy about reported integration plans in Warren, Mich., of the Department of Housing and Urban Development, which is headed by her husband, former Gov. George Romney.

an odd chance, win the Senatorial primary against Weicker, who is sometimes for Nixon and sometimes against him, he would assuredly draw votes that would otherwise go to independent Tom Dodd, who thinks like Lupton on foreign policy matters even if he differs with him on firearms. So it is to Dodd's advantage to have Weicker win.

If ADA-er Joe Duffey is the Democratic Senatorial nominee, as seems possible, and Weicker goes for the Republicans, Dodd would receive some right-wing votes in addition to the hard hat labor votes that have always been in his corner. Weicker, an ingenious man who has had high visibility because of his freshmen record in the House of Representatives, looks like the winning horse all the way through November, though the margin could be narrow enough to put the hunters, the trapshooters, and the employees of the small arms manufacturers in a position to dominate one more important election.

Most American Men In 'Battle Of Bulge'

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — Things a columnist might never know if he didn't open his mail:

How fat are Americans? Well, the body of a very lean man or woman contain 10 to 25 per cent fat, but most Americans are 25 per cent fat and some 50 per cent or more. About 80 per cent of U.S. men are above the weight which statistically, for their height, leads to the greatest longevity.

On the other hand, the heavenly baby of modern times was born to a woman in Southern Turkey. It weighed 24 pounds at birth, more than three times the weight U.S. doctors suggest now as ideal.

Turning streets in the business districts of cities into pedestrian malls isn't a 20th century idea. One of the first things Julius Caesar reportedly did when he became the boss of ancient Rome was to ban the daytime use of carts and chariots in the crowded center of the empire's capital.

Stealing, robbing and embezzling have become among America's most profitable industries. Property valued at more than $3.5 billion is now stolen each year—more than $9.5 million every day. Only about 50 per cent is recovered or, in the case of stolen automobiles, about 85 per cent.

One Worker Dies, Another Injured In Plant Mishap

DETROIT (AP) — One man was killed and another seriously injured Monday when a cable snapped and dropped a load of metal parts on them at the Budd Company's plant in Detroit.

Harry VanDermurgh, of Detroit, was killed and James Weingarten, of Mount Clemens, was reported in serious condition at a Detroit hospital. Both men were employed by the company as riggers.

Opening lead — six of diamonds.

Bad contracts sometimes make good drama, as demonstrated by this hand where South, by exceptionally fine play, brought home a slam that North had foisted upon him.

Of course, the contract would have been speedily defeated had West chosen a club as his opening lead, but West, quite understandably, led a trump.

Declarer drew three rounds of trumps, cashed the K-Q of hearts, led a spade to the queen, cashed the ace of hearts, ruffed dummy's last heart, and then played a spade to the king to produce this four-card position:

North

South

Declarer now cashed dummy's ten of diamonds, discarding the eight of clubs from his hand, and West, who could not afford to part with a spade, discarded the ten of clubs.

Analyzing the situation perfectly (West had previously discarded the 6-2 of clubs in that order), South led the five of clubs towards his singleton jack.

As a result, the defenses found itself helpless. East could not afford to rise with the ace, since this would have caught his partner's king, so he was forced to follow low.

West thus found himself on lead with the king of clubs and had no choice but to lead a spade from the J-9 to declarer's A-10 — in this manner proving to North's satisfaction that sometimes crime does pay!

Ann Landers

Sleepwalker Takes Jaunt-Out Of Camper

Dear Ann Landers: Are you sure sleepwalkers never do anything they wouldn't do while awake? I disagree. I read an article by Isabella Taves condensed from "Today's Health" about a 14-year-old boy who rose from his bunk still asleep, looked in the refrigerator and then walked out the back door. It would have been just another sleepwalking episode — except the boy was in a camper-truck, traveling at 50 miles an hour on the San Diego Freeway.

The article warned against awakening a sleepwalker abruptly. One must never seize a sleepwalker and shake him awake. It is best to repeat his name calmly, until it penetrates his consciousness, then help him realize where he is and let him know he is safe.

Parents of sleepwalking children should take obvious precautions by fastening gates at the head of stairs and locking doors that lead to the outside.

The article quoted Dr. Roger Broughton, an Ottawa neurologist and authority on somnambulism, as saying it does no good to discourage sleepwalking by such primitive means as surrounding a child's bed with pans of cold water so he will step into them and wake up. A letter in your column suggested just this method. Please correct this misstatement.—Rochester, Minnesota

Dear Roch: For most theories there are counter theories. Most authorities on somnambulism say the vast majority of sleepwalkers do nothing out of character in their sleep. The boy who walked out of the back door of the camper was not deviating from his normal behavior pattern. Unfortunately, that particular "bedroom" was not the one he was accustomed to.

Many readers wrote to tell me they used the water pan method with great success. It did not cure the sleepwalker, but it did awaken him.

Dear Ann Landers: My husband (age 34) put on his summer tux yesterday for the first time in four years. He looked like a stuffed sausage. He couldn't even button his shirt collar.

Buck has a dead job and never does one thing for exercise—except bend his elbow. When I suggested that he take up bowling or tennis or golf or swimming he pointed out that a great many star athletes die young because they exercised too much and it was bad for the heart. Buck cited several examples and I had to admit he made a pretty good case. Do you have any thoughts on the subject?—Dumb Dora

Dear Dor: More men die from overeating and over-drinking than from overexercising.

A man who is not accustomed to physical exertion should not suddenly take up tennis or handball in his middle years. He should start with mild exercises and work up gradually to more strenuous activity. Urge your stuffed sausage to see a doctor. He needs to be put on a diet and learn what kind and how much exercise he should have.

Dear Ann Landers: What do you think of a 26-year-old who has $30,000 worth of education including a master's degree, and after 18 months on Wall Street decides money is garbage, business is phony and he wants to be a mailman?—His Parents

The gun people do not take any position as a group in the primaries. After all, they must preserve a certain maneuverability for the November finals. Nonetheless, their primary choice as individuals can seriously affect the November outcome. If John Lupton, a down-the-line Nixon man with a conservative record, should, by

He attributed it to the low turnout and to the controversy about reported integration plans in Warren, Mich., of the Department of Housing and Urban Development, which is headed by her husband, former Gov. George Romney.

If ADA-er Joe Duffey is the Democratic Senatorial nominee, as seems possible, and Weicker goes for the Republicans, Dodd would receive some right-wing votes in addition to the hard hat labor votes that have always been in his corner. Weicker, an ingenious man who has had high visibility because of his freshman record in the House of Representatives, looks like the winning horse all the way through November, though the margin could be narrow enough to put the hunters, the trapshooters, and the employees of the small arms manufacturers in a position to dominate one more important election.

Most American Men In 'Battle Of Bulge'

Turning streets in the business districts of cities into pedestrian malls isn't a 20th century idea. One of the first things Julius Caesar reportedly did when he became the boss of ancient Rome was to ban the daytime use of carts and chariots in the crowded center of the empire's capital.

Stealing, robbing and embezzling have become among America's most profitable industries. Property valued at more than $3.5 billion is now stolen each year—more than $9.5 million every day. Only about 50 per cent is recovered or, in the case of stolen automobiles, about 85 per cent.

One Worker Dies, Another Injured In Plant Mishap

DETROIT (AP) — One man was killed and another seriously injured Monday when a cable snapped and dropped a load of metal parts on them at the Budd Company's plant in Detroit.

Harry VanDeMurgle, of Detroit, was killed and James Weingarta, of Mount Clemens, was reported in serious condition at a Detroit hospital. Both men were employed by the company as riggers.

is good to discourage sleepwalking by such primitive means as surrounding a child's bed with pans of cold water so he will step into them and wake up. A letter in your column suggested just this method. Please correct this misstatement.—Rochester, Minnesota

American Income Improves, What About Life's Quality?

By JOHN CUNIFF
NEW YORK (AP) — The present state of the economy may be described in the conventional way, through statistics, or it can be shown by contrasting our ambitious goals with our inability to achieve them, our dollar wealth with our environmental poverty.

To put it in question form: Have the increases in income really permitted Americans to buy a better life? Has the quality of life improved to the same extent as the Gross National Product?

These are the statistics: —Gross National Product, the market value of the output of goods and services produced by the economy, rose to $331 billion in 1969 from $229 billion five years earlier.

—National income, the total earnings of labor and property from the production of goods and services, rose to $770 billion in 1969 from $514 billion in 1964.

—Personal income, which is the total income received by persons from all sources, rose to $749 billion in 1969 from $495 billion in 1964.

—Disposable personal income, or the income remaining to persons after payment of personal taxes, jumped to $632 billion from $436 billion in 1964.

Those are the four major measures of production and income. Do they tell an accurate story? Or should the statistics be forgotten for the moment and the economy evaluated in more personal ways.

Hundreds of thousands of families, for example, have so benefitted by steady jobs and rising wages that they have saved an amount that once would have served as the down payment on a house. Now they can't buy that house.

Interest rates and prices have soared, and larger down payments are required, forcing these families to remain where

Plot Uncovered In City Cemetery; Funds Misused

BAY CITY (AP)—The operators of a rural cemetery in Bay County have been charged by state attorneys with mishandling some $67,000 from the sale of burial plots that should have gone for perpetual maintenance of the sites.

The suit, second in recent days to be filed by the State Attorney General's office, charges five officers of the Floral Gardens Cemetery Association with mishandling funds through an alleged illegal investment scheme.

Named in the suit are: Grant Teeple; James R. Klein, also known as James R. Kline; George Cnudde; J. Lennart Johnson and J. William Hillis.

A State Cemetery Commission audit showed Floral Gardens' maintenance fund was $67,677.67 in the red on Dec. 16, 1969. Investigation by state lawyers also showed nearly $60,000 of the cemetery's funds had been spent to pay life insurance premiums on a $150,000 policy for James Klein, a cemetery director.

they are. To many people, good housing is unavailable at any price because the country is producing homes at a rate that satisfies only half the need.

Americans also have surrounded themselves with an incredible array of gadgets that allegedly simplify life, but often the owners learn that these devices complicate life instead, especially when they break down and cannot be serviced.

Dollar affluence has permitted hundreds of thousands of Americans to own two cars, but they have learned to their chagrin that in some areas government officials have permitted more registrations than there are legal parking spaces.

A feature of the economic expansion has been easy credit—consumer credit rose from $77 billion in 1964 to $122 billion in 1969—but that credit burden now harasses many of the people who accepted it.

Economic expansion has permitted millions of Americans to afford a college education denied to their parents, but many of the educational institutions now cannot afford students and are in financial distress.

The statistics and the dollar signs look impressive, even when the economy is badly inflated and battling a recession at the same time. But do the figures tell the story the way it should be told?

K. I. Sawyer Wing Designated 'Best' In 2nd Air Force

K. I. SAWYER — The 410th Bomb Wing has been selected the best of 23 bomb wings in Second Air Force (January through June) and is to be presented the Walter C. Sweeney Jr. Award.

The award, made twice annually, recognizes outstanding operational and maintenance capabilities and performance in Second Air Force bomb wings which are located in 15 states and two overseas locations. To qualify the 410th Bomb Wing had to rate outstanding in several exhaustive inspections involving all phases of its mission responsibilities. These areas include, flying operations, maintenance and flying safety.

Under Blomberg In addition, aircrews and maintenance personnel are tested for job knowledge and exercises are conducted to test job proficiency.

The Sweeney Award, formerly

ly an Eighth Air Force award, was taken over by Second Air Force when it assumed operational jurisdiction over Eighth Air Force bases. Eighth Air Force Headquarters, formerly located at Westover AFB, Mass., was moved to Andersen AFB, Guam, early in 1970.

The 410th Bomb Wing, commanded by Colonel Jules M. Blomberg, is composed of two tactical and six support squadrons. The tactical squadrons are the 444th Bomb sq., which has Boeing B-52 Stratofortresses; and the 46th Air Refueling sq., which flies Boeing KC-135 Stratotankers.

The wing's mission is to support the Strategic Air Command mission of deterring war, or in the event of war, to destroy the enemy's will and ability to fight. The 410th Bomb Wing supports this mission through its ability to conduct strategic bombardment on a global scale and accomplish effective air refueling operations.

Two Other Awards The wing has twice previously been recognized as the best in Second Air Force for its operation capabilities. The first time was in 1967 and in 1968 the unit was selected as the best again. This was the first time that a bomb wing won such recognition for the consecutive periods.

The wing was also awarded a Presidential Distinguished Unit Citation for operations during World War II and an Air Force Outstanding Unit Award for excellence of performance during 1963.

Detroit Workers Given Protection To Put Up Signs

DETROIT (AP)—Protected by bullet-proof vests and armed with rifles, a contingent of Detroit police stood guard Monday while city workers posted new street signs at the corner of 14th Street and Indianola—a block away from the headquarters of the National Committee to Combat Fascism.

The armed guard came 10 days after a television crew charged a shot was fired at their car from the porch of the NCCF frame-house on Indianola. The NCCF is an offshoot of the Black Panther Party.

City workers were told Monday they had to replace the signs at the intersection because they were covered with NCCF posters and slogans. But the workers refused to act without police protection.

Calling it "a commentary on the times," Inspector Clifton G. Casey, commander of the 10th Precinct, answered the request by dispatching an undisclosed number of squad cars to the scene.

The signs were put up without incident.

New Phone Rates

LANSING (AP) — The State Public Service Commission has approved applications by Michigan Bell Telephone Co. and Kingsley Telephone Co. to provide toll-free service between Traverse City and Kingsley. The commission said there would be no increase in rates for Michigan Bell's 12,776 Traverse City customers, but Kingsley Telephone would file new rates for its 661 customers prior to the establishment of extended area service.

Mounties Swoop Down On Festival; Drug Use Noted

MOSPORT, Ont. (AP)—Royal Canadian Mounted Police and provincial police Monday swooped on drug traffickers and users remaining at the Strawberry Fleckle rock festival, dropping the permissive attitude that prevailed during the three-day event.

By noon Monday, eight persons were arrested, one for drug trafficking, five for possession and two for liquor offenses.

Deputy OPP Commissioner D. V. Whiteley said police refrained from making arrests during the weekend for fear that interference might cause a riot among the 50,000 festival goers.

He said the OPP has no firm policy of how to handle drug use during big events of this kind, "... we have to play it by ear."

"You have to evaluate each situation and decide what you are going to do; whether you are going to go in and make arrests and maybe cause a riot," he said.

Plainclothesmen, about 50 of whom had been mingling with the festival crowd during the weekend, moved in early in the morning as festival goers prepared for the trek home.

Other suspects were intercepted at police roadblocks leading from Mosport Park, the festival site, 40 miles northeast of Toronto and searched.

American Income Improves, What About Life's Quality?

By JOHN CUNIFF
NEW YORK (AP) — The present state of the economy may be described in the conventional way, through statistics, or it can be shown by contrasting our ambitious goals with our inability to achieve them, our dollar wealth with our environmental poverty.

To put it in question form: Have the increases in incomes really permitted Americans to buy a better life? Has the quality of life improved to the same extent as the Gross National Product?

These are the statistics:

—Gross National Product, the market value of the output of goods and services produced by the economy, rose to $331 billion in 1969 from $629 billion five years earlier.

—National income, the total earnings of labor and property from the production of goods and services, rose to $770 billion in 1969 from $514 billion in 1964.

—Personal income, which is the total income received by persons from all sources, rose to $749 billion in 1969 from $495 billion in 1964.

—Disposable personal income, or the income remaining to persons after payment of personal taxes, jumped to $632 billion from $436 billion in 1964.

Those are the four major measures of production and income. Do they tell an accurate story? Or should the statistics be forgotten for the moment and the economy evaluated in more personal ways.

Hundreds of thousands of families, for example, have so benefitted by steady jobs and rising wages that they have saved an amount that once would have served as the down payment on a house. Now they can't buy that house.

Interest rates and prices have soared, and larger down payments are required, forcing these families to remain where they are. To many people, good housing is unavailable at any price because the country is producing homes at a rate that satisfies only half the need.

Americans also have surrounded themselves with an incredible array of gadgets that allegedly simplify life, but often the owners learn that these devices complicate life instead, especially when they break down and cannot be serviced.

Dollar affluence has permitted hundreds of thousands of Americans to own two cars, but they have learned to their chagrin that in some areas government officials have permitted more registrations than there are legal parking spaces.

A feature of the economic expansion has been easy credit—consumer credit rose from $77 billion in 1964 to $122 billion in 1969—but that credit burden now harasses many of the people who accepted it.

Economic expansion has permitted millions of Americans to afford a college education denied to their parents, but many of the educational institutions now cannot afford students and are in financial distress.

The statistics and the dollar signs look impressive, even when the economy is badly inflated and battling a recession at the same time. But do the figures tell the story the way it should be told?

Plot Uncovered In City Cemetery; Funds Misused

BAY CITY (AP)—The operators of a rural cemetery in Bay County have been charged by state attorneys with mishandling some $67,000 from the sale of burial plots that should have gone for perpetual maintenance of the sites.

The suit, second in recent days to be filed by the State Attorney General's office, charges five officers of the Floral Gardens Cemetery Association with mishandling funds through an alleged illegal investment scheme.

Named in the suit are: Grant Teeple; James R. Klein, also known as James R. Kline; George Cnudde; J. Lennart Johnson and J. William Hillis.

A State Cemetery Commission audit showed Floral Gardens' maintenance fund was $67,677.67 in the red on Dec. 16, 1969. Investigation by state lawyers also showed nearly $60,000 of the cemetery's funds had been spent to pay life insurance premiums on a $150,000 policy for James Klein, a cemetery director.

K. I. Sawyer Wing Designated 'Best' In 2nd Air Force

K. I. SAWYER — The 410th Bomb Wing has been selected the best of 23 bomb wings in Second Air Force (January through June) and is to be presented the Walter C. Sweeney Jr. Award.

The award, made twice annually, recognizes outstanding operational capabilities and performance in Second Air Force bomb wings which are located in 15 states and two overseas locations. To qualify the 410th Bomb Wing had to rate outstanding in several exhaustive inspections involving all phases of its mission responsibilities. These areas include, flying operations, maintenance and flying safety.

Under Blomberg

In addition, aircrews and maintenance personnel are tested for job knowledge and exercises are conducted to test job proficiency.

The Sweeney Award, formerly

ly an Eighth Air Force award, was taken over by Second Air Force when it assumed operational jurisdiction over Eighth Air Force bases. Eighth Air Force Headquarters, formerly located at Westover AFB, Mass., was moved to Andersen AFB, Guam, early in 1970.

The 410th Bomb Wing, commanded by Colonel Jules M. Blomberg, is composed of two tactical and six support squadrons. The tactical squadrons are the 644th Bomb sq., which has Boeing B-52 Stratofortresses; and the 46th Air Refueling Sq., which flies Boeing KC-135 Stratotankers.

The wing's mission is to support the Strategic Air Command mission of deterring war, or in the event of war, to destroy the enemy's will and ability to fight. The 410th Bomb Wing supports this mission through its ability to conduct strategic bombardment on a global scale and accomplish effective air refueling operations.

Two Other Awards

The wing has twice previously been recognized as the best in Second Air Force for its operation capabilities. The first time was in 1967 and in 1968 the unit was selected as the best again. This was the first time that a bomb wing won such recognition for the consecutive periods.

The wing was also awarded a Presidential Distinguished Unit Citation for operations during World War II and an Air Force Outstanding Unit Award for excellence of performance during 1963.

Detroit Workers Given Protection To Put Up Signs

DETROIT (AP)—Protected by bullet-proof vests and armed with rifles, a contingent of Detroit police stood guard Monday while city workers posted new street signs at the corner of 14th Street and Indiandale—a block away from the headquarters of the National Committee to Combat Fascism.

The armed guard came 10 days after a television crew charged a shot was fired at their car from the porch of the NCCF frame-house on Indiandale. The NCCF is an offshoot of the Black Panther Party.

City workers were told Monday they had to replace the signs at the intersection because they were covered with NCCF posters and slogans. But the workers refused to act without police protection.

Calling it "a commentary on the times," Inspector Clifford G. Casey, commander of the 10th Precinct, answered the request by dispatching an undisclosed number of squad cars to the scene.

"The signs were put up without incident."

New Phone Rates

LANSING (AP) — The State Public Service Commission has approved applications by Michigan Bell Telephone Co. and Kingsley Telephone Co. to provide toll-free service between Traverse City and Kingsley. The commission said there would be no increase in rates for Michigan Bell's 12,776 Traverse City customers, but Kingsley Telephone would file new rates for its 661 customers prior to the establishment of extended area service.

Mounties Swoop Down On Festival; Drug Use Noted

MOSPORT, Ont. (AP)—Royal Canadian Mounted Police and provincial police Monday swooped on drug traffickers and users remaining at the Strawberry Fields rock festival, dropping the permissive attitude that prevailed during the three-day event.

By noon Monday, eight persons were arrested, one for drug trafficking, five for possession and two for liquor offenses.

Deputy OPP Commissioner D. V. Whiteley said police refrained from making arrests during the weekend for fear that interference might cause a riot among the 50,000 festival goers.

He said the OPP has no firm policy of how to handle drug use during big events of this kind. "We have to play it by ear."

"You have to evaluate each situation and decide what you are going to do; whether you are going to go in and make arrests and maybe cause a riot," he said.

Plainclothesmen, about 50 of whom had been mingling with the festival crowd during the weekend, moved in early in the morning as festival goers prepared for the trek home.

Other suspects were intercepted at police roadblocks leading from Mosport Park, the festival site, 40 miles northeast of Toronto and searched.

Official Primary Results Released

Official results from last Tuesday's primary election have been released by William Butler, Delta County clerk, following a canvass made by the Delta

County Board of Canvassers. The canvass had no effect on the reported results of the election, although a report made by the news media in the race for the Republican nomination for the 37th District seat in the State Senate was erroneous.

It is not known where the mistake was made, but Robert W. Davis should only have been credited with 918 votes from Delta County. The mistake did not have any bearing on the outcome of the contest, as Davis' opponent, Frank R. Heslton, received only 333 votes in Delta County.

The official results:
Governor - William G. Milliken (R), 1172; James C. Turner (R), 300; Zolton Ferency (D), 635; Sander Levin (D), 675; George F. Montgomery (D), 154; George N. Parris (D), 96.
U.S. Senate - Phillip A. Hart (D), 1359; Robert J. Huber (R), 617; Lenore Romney (R), 919.
U.S. Representative - Nino Green (D), 1180; Philip E. Ruppe (R), 1383.

State Senate - Russell M. Lee (D), 1029; Robert W. Davis (R), 918; Frank R. Heslton (R), 333.

Newsman Subpoena Guidelines Changed

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Atty. Gen. John N. Mitchell has announced new guidelines for the subpoena of newsmen by the Justice Department, but he says the government is "not in any way conceding our constitutional and statutory power to request a court to subpoena the press or anyone else."

Mitchell told the House of Delegates of the American Bar Association Monday that the controversy over free press-fair trial was "one of the most difficult problems I have faced as attorney general." He asked the ABA to consider an immediate study of the issue.

He said the new federal guidelines stress negotiations between prosecutors and newsmen. If that fails, subpoenas will be issued only with express authorization of the attorney general.

"A newspaperman," he said, "may have information which may convict a criminal or which may exonerate an innocent man."

Mitchell said the guidelines were to take effect immediately, but he said they were only interim.

In a later news conference, the attorney general said the guidelines probably would have avoided issuance of subpoenas in recent cases, but he did not cite them.

Mitchell also said he would not oppose legislation to grant newsmen the right to keep their sources of information confidential — similar to the privileged relationship between lawyers and clients.

"Serious journalists from all the media have told me privately they would rather go to prison than comply with subpoenas," Mitchell said. "The press views subpoenas as an effort by the government to use them as quasigovernmental investigators."

The guidelines require Justice Department investigators to first try to obtain information needed for prosecutors from nonpress sources. Also, Mitchell said, caution should be observed in requesting unpublished information where a serious claim of confidentiality is alleged.

Increased Activism On Campuses Predicted By Student Unit Leader

ST. PAUL, Minn. (AP) — The president of the National Student Association predicted today the coming academic year will see an increase in campus activism, "much tougher and much more locally centered."

Charles Palmer said in an interview he couldn't anticipate the specific patterns of increased student protest. But he said he was sure much effort would be directed against the Vietnam war, racism, pollution and corporations which manufacture war goods or contribute to contamination of the environment.

Harder, Tougher
U.S. military involvement in Cambodia this year made college people "a little harder, a little tougher, a little more cynical about the responsiveness of the political system, a little more cynical about how the political system is dealt with in this country," said Palmer, of East Los Angeles, Calif.

"Next year will see a redoubling of activism," said the 23-year-old graduate of the University of California at Berkeley. The NSA is holding its annual congress here.

500 Chapters Organized
The NSA says it has chapters on 500 college and university campuses and claims to be the nation's largest student organization. Its membership is counted by chapter, rather than by student.

"The exact thrusts depend upon what happens externally," Palmer said. "Lest we become reactionary, we'll have to respond to what the President and other people are doing."

But he said there is bound to be activity against government, and it may include some directed at state governments, at mayors and at campus administrations. It will all depend upon what issues arise, Palmer said.

Without recommending any cooling of campus activism, Palmer said the time has come for students to go to their home communities and elsewhere to spread word of what they've been doing. The generation gap is widening, he said, and communication is important.

Plan To Broaden Base
"I think one of the real crises facing students the next couple years is how to build and broaden their base, how to get out to other people, how to understand what other people are doing and how to make understood what student interests are."

Palmer said students have tremendous problems understanding and being sensitive to the problems of most working people.

"Most students have been away from home for a while," he said. "They don't know about the insecurity of being laid off, or the insecurity of a big doctor bill. They don't really sense, nearly as directly as their parents, the effects of the present recession."

Drifting Mustache
A rapid talker, Palmer wore blue jeans, a green shirt and—unlike many NSA delegates—shoes. His full mustache droops. His black hair is a bit scraggly, but not very long by the standards of today's youth. His smiles are faint, his scowls are deep.

The generation gap is increasing, he said in the sense that "awareness" spreads much faster among students than in other parts of society. He said students are much less fatalistic about what can be done or can't be done.

"More and more college people are thinking in terms of 'let's do it' instead of 'don't tell me it can't be done.' They want to change things around," he said. "People don't want to become pawns for someone else's ego."

Red Backing Probed
How about charges that campus unrest is Communist supported?

Palmer said his group, the NSA, "has no backing from anybody except for a couple of grants from foundations."

He said that talk of Communist support is rather irrelevant anyway.

"It shouldn't be a question of who we're backed by as long as we're responsive to the students," he said. "The students of the colleges and universities set our policies."

Palmer also had these observations:
Drugs—They have become a factor on campus. "A whole new culture has developed around drugs. The laws are terrible, and enforcement of the laws is terrible."

Indochina: "The whole situation . . . is approaching the point where there is no middle ground. We've got to get out. We're not really welcome there."

Repression: "In terms of political repression, there has been an increase" since Richard M. Nixon became President.

Universities: "It's time for universities to start turning out people less professionally oriented and more people oriented."

Fire Officer Assigned Here

He is a veteran of four years with the U.S. Navy.

Official Primary Results Released

Official results from last Tuesday's primary election have been released by William Butler, Delta County clerk, following a canvass made by the Delta

County Board of Canvassers. The canvass had no effect on the reported results of the election, although a report made by the news media in the race for the Republican nomination for the 37th District seat in the State Senate was erroneous.

It is not known where the mistake was made, but Robert W. Davis should only have been credited with 918 votes from Delta County. The mistake did not have any bearing in the outcome of the contest, as Davis' opponent, Frank R. Heseltine, received only 333 votes in Delta County.

The official results:
Governor - William G. Milliken (R), 1172; James C. Turner (R), 300; Zolton Ferency (D), 635; Sander Levin (D), 675; George F. Montgomery (D), 154; George N. Parris (D), 96.
U.S. Senate - Phillip A. Hart (D), 1359; Robert J. Huber (R), 617; Lenore Romney (R), 919.
U.S. Representative - Nino Green (D), 1189; Phillip E. Ruppe (R), 1383.

State Senate - Russell M. Lee (D), 1029; Robert W. Davis (R), 918; Frank R. Heseltine (R), 333.
State Representative - Michael J. Nelson (D), 1005; Charles H. Varnum (D), 1210.

U.P. Skydiver Hurt Slightly In Fair Jump

WAKEFIELD (AP) — Greg Yon, 31, was back home in Wakefield, today, nursing cuts and bruises. But he was mighty happy to be there because, Yon said, "it was pure luck" he wasn't at a funeral home, instead.

Yon is a sky diver and he jumped from 3,800 feet at the Iron County Fair at Saxon, Wis., Sunday afternoon. He sailed along in a free fall for the first 1,000 feet.

At 2,800 feet he pulled the rip cord for his main parachute, but the chute fouled and only about a quarter of it opened. Yon went to his emergency chute, but it got tangled in lines of the main chute.

Yon missed by several hundred feet the fairground spot he was aiming for and came plummeting down in a clump of trees. Limbs broke his fall.

"I would have been in bad shape and might not even be here except for the trees," he said. "I had no control. It was pure luck I came down in the trees."

Despite the experience, Yon says he's lost none of his enthusiasm for sky diving and is looking forward to his next jump.

GM Sets Recall For Buses, Trucks

DETROIT (AP)—The General Motors Corp. has announced the recall of about 18,500 medium-duty trucks and school buses for correction of possible brake defects.

General Motors reported the vehicles involved—1969 and 1970 models—may be leaking brake fluid because of defective covers on the brake master cylinder reservoir. Excessive loss of brake fluid from the reservoir could cause brake failure.

U.P. Skydiver Hurt Slightly In Fair Jump

WAKEFIELD (AP) — Greg Yon, 31, was back home in Wakefield, today, nursing cuts and bruises. But he was mighty happy to be there because, Yon said, "it was pure luck" he wasn't at a funeral home, instead.

Yon is a sky diver and he jumped from 3,800 feet at the Iron County Fair at Saxon, Wis., Sunday afternoon. He sailed along in a free fall for the first 1,000 feet.

At 2,800 feet he pulled the rip cord for his main parachute, but the chute fouled and only about a quarter of it opened. Yon went to his emergency chute, but it got tangled in lines of the main chute.

Yon missed by several hundred feet the fairground spot he was aiming for and came plummeting down in a clump of trees. Limbs broke his fall.

"I would have been in bad shape and might not even be here except for the trees," he said. "I had no control. It was pure luck I came down in the trees."

Despite the experience, Yon says he's lost none of his enthusiasm for sky diving and is looking forward to his next jump.

State Youths Caught With Dope At Border

WINDSOR, Ont. (AP)—American youths going through Windsor headed for last weekend's rock festival at Mosport, Ont., found Canadian customs officers looking for marijuana.

That's what was found. As of Monday, provincial courts in Windsor have registered four convictions for possession of marijuana.

GM Sets Recall For Buses, Trucks

DETROIT (AP)—The General Motors Corp. has announced the recall of about 16,500 medium-duty trucks and school buses for correction of possible brake defects.

General Motors reported the vehicles involved—1969 and 1970 models—may be leaking brake fluid because of defective covers on the brake master cylinder reservoir. Excessive loss of brake fluid from the reservoir could cause brake failure.

There are 11,474 Chevrolet trucks and approximately 5,000 GMC truck division vehicles involved in the recall drive. The vehicles are all equipped with dual frame-mounted brake boosters.

No accidents have been reported as a result of this condition the firm said.

In addition two charges have been withdrawn and four other persons were remanded.

Three American youths were convicted of possession of marijuana Friday and agreed to voluntary deportation.

On Monday, Joseph Creswell, 22, of Livonia, Mich., was found guilty of possession of marijuana and was fined $200 with no deportation order. Two other Michigan youths in the car at the time Creswell was arrested at the Ambassador Bridge had possession charges withdrawn.

Two Milwaukee, Wis., youths—Richard Lieberman, 17, and James Lurie, 17—were remanded to Sept. 4 on charges of possession of marijuana and possession of THC.

Dennis Pijanowski, 20, of Birmingham, Mich., was remanded to Aug. 18 on a charge of possession of THC, and Gerard Higgins, 20, of Warren, Mich., was remanded to Aug. 18 on charges of possession of marijuana and possession of THC.

Children's Group To Present Plays

The Children's Summer Theater Group, representing students from all local schools, both public and parochial, will present three plays at the Karas Memorial Band Shell on Aug. 14, 15 and 16.

The children have been meeting since July building sets, making costumes and learning lines and the public is invited to see the results of their work at 2 p. m. on each of the three days.

Plays to be seen are "Little Red Riding Hood" by the first and second graders; "The Wayward Witch" by the third and fourth graders; and "Operation Litterbug" by the fifth and sixth graders.

No admission will be charged for the plays, however, contributions will be accepted to help defray expenses.

Following the play on Aug. 15, a carnival for muscular dystrophy will be held.

Nail Problem Is Fatal To Giraffe

DETROIT (AP) — Paying a heavy penalty for not being conscientious about keeping his nails trim, Leo, a 14-year-old giraffe, died Monday of an overgrown hoof.

Leo, who at 18-feet tall was the pride of the Detroit Zoo's giraffe compound, had a date with surgeons Wednesday to clean-up an infection in his foot that developed last year after his long-overgrown hooves were trimmed.

But Leo's hoof began to hemorrhage Saturday and by Monday he was dead, leaving his six offspring fatherless.

Dogs, Baseball Occupy Council

Is it possible that a city which has produced a top-flight Little League team, can, at the same time, be going to the dogs?

A stranger sitting in on Monday night's meeting of the City Council might have thought so for a few minutes. "The city is over-run with dogs," said Councilman and former mayor Leo DeMars. "And whether that man was right or wrong, the city should hire a dogcatcher and bill the county since it's their responsibility."

Rehire Jones? "Maybe we should rehire Jones and bill the county," he suggested, referring to ex-dog warden Ed Jones who resigned last month after Sheriff Lloyd Gray refused to honor a personal dog ordinance violation issued by Jones.

Dog patrols are necessary although "man's best friends" haven't really taken over the city council stipulated.

And since dog enforcement is a county problem, let's bring the matter to the official attention of the County Board of Commissioners, they said.

Everyone agreed and Mayor Douglas Rose was the unanimous choice to present the city's canine concerns at the Aug. 19 meeting of the board.

Team Praised Public congratulations and a $100 donation went to the Little League team. Also singled out for appreciation were the adult leaders, "who have devoted their time, talents and leadership to make the Little League program workable."

While the praises were being passed out, the department of public works and Supt. Ray Linderoth came in for recognition for "the tremendous amount of work the city crews have done the past few weeks" in conjunction with the street improvement program.

Aug. 24 was set for a public hearing on special assessments for curb and gutter work and a Community Improvement Program was re-certified for submission to the U. S. Department of Housing and Urban Development.

Woman Faces Second 'Furnishing' Charge

A 21-year-old woman, found not guilty in a District Court trial last Thursday of furnishing intoxicants to minors, was arrested on the same charge Monday morning, city police report.

Mrs. Mary Strange, 209 Range St., was unable to post $100 at a District Court bond hearing shortly after her arrest Monday and ordered lodged until arraignment Wednesday morning. Her two minor children were placed in temporary custody of the Department of Social Services.

Officers said they arrested four youths for being minors in possession of intoxicants in connection with Mrs. Strange's alleged activities. Two of the youths are under 17 years of age and were referred to Probate Court. Two others, 17-year-old Larry Lee Winsor, N. Houghton Ave., and 18-year-old David L. Reed, Chippewa Ave., will appear for arraignment in District Court Wednesday. The alleged furnishing and possession incidents occurred Friday evening, officers said.

Little Leaguers Leave Tonight

The Little League All-Stars will leave Manistique at midnight tonight for Des Moines, Iowa, where they will meet Grand Island, Neb., Americans in the Central States Division tournament at 4 p.m. Thursday.

If Manistique wins Thursday, the team will meet the winner of a game between Commerce, Okla., and Fort Des Moines in championship play Saturday.

Whether they will travel the 700 miles by charter bus or private automobile was undecided this morning. The team will leave from the Youth Center.

Anyone wishing to contribute to the Little League expense fund may do so at either the State Savings or First National Bank. Local support has been overwhelming since the expense fund drive was launched last week, team officials said.

Although certain tournament expenses are reimbursed by the national Little League organization, local boys must still meet a certain portion of travel costs.

Unemployment Measure Will Aid Millions

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Nixon has signed a bill under which unemployment insurance will be extended to about 4.7 million more workers and extra benefits will be available in times of high unemployment.

Congress balked at proposals to bring employees of large farms under the unemployment insurance system, but it did vote to include other large groups not hitherto covered.

These include an estimated 2.12 million employees of nonprofit organizations, 1.132 million employees of smaller business firms, 940,000 employees of state hospitals and colleges, 210,000 salesmen, route drivers and similar workers, 190,000 persons engaged in processing agricultural products and 160,000 Americans employed abroad by U.S. firms.

The new law also provides for unemployment payments to be extended as much as 13 weeks, with federal help, when the national percentage of insured unemployment reaches 4.5 per cent, or in an individual state when the rate increases 20 per cent over the preceding year and is at least 4 per cent. The extra benefits would be effective generally beginning in 1972, but provision is made for states to start them sooner if they wish.

The federal unemployment tax is increased one-tenth of one per cent. The base on which it is levied goes from $3,000 of wages to $4,200, effective in 1972.

Festival At Goose Lake May Be First And Last

JACKSON, Mich. (AP) — The Jackson County prosecutor said Monday he would seek court action soon against Goose Lake Park, adding "We think we have enough evidence so there will never be another rock festival."

The vast majority of the estimated 200,000 youths who attended a three-day rock festival left the grounds by late Monday. Sheriff's deputies reported, however, about 500 youths remained in the area late Monday.

Prosecutor Bruce Barton said he would attempt to prove the park was a public nuisance. Meanwhile, sheriff's deputies reported that 163 youths were arrested outside the festival grounds, the vast majority on narcotics charges.

Released On Bond
Many were released on bonds of $2,500 to $3,000 Monday after being arraigned in district court. Gov. William Milliken Sunday termed the widespread sale of drugs during the three-day festival that ended Sunday as a "public outrage."

Milliken pledged help to local officials in hopes of preventing a scheduled Labor Day weekend festival from taking place. The governor also said that State Police were collecting evidence against the persons who sold drugs during the festival. Independent sellers advertised their wares with makeshift signs or yelled the merits and price of their drugs.

No Advice Given
Show officials, however, said they also were "outraged" at the sale of drugs. Richard Songer, 35, who owns the private park, contended he handled the situation as he was told to do by authorities. Law officers, however, denied giving Songer any advice on the festival.

Sheriff's deputies and State Police did not go onto the grounds in uniform during the festival. However, some State Police went in in plainclothes and watched the happenings.

The prosecutor said he shared the frustration of other police officers who did not make arrests in the park for fear of sparking a riot.

Mob Rule Noted
Barton said, "It was mob rule in there. We agreed that the worst thing we could do was make an arrest. There were an awful lot of good kids who could have been hurt."

Park officials pointed out there were no violent incidents during the festival and that no youths were seriously ill due to drugs.

The prosecutor said one of the reasons it was peaceful was "there were so many good kids there, the bad ones were diluted in the crowd."

"That's what makes it so unfortunate," he said, adding, "a lot of good kids got their first exposure to drugs."

Last week, Barton sought but lost an attempt to get a court injunction against opening the festival. One of the reasons it was denied was that there had been no basis of proving a nuisance.

Owner Disagrees
He said with evidence gathered during the rock festival, he would bring a similar suit in court against the festival.

Richard Songer, 35, Farmington construction executive and owner of Goose Lake Park, disagreed with the 200,000 estimate, which was made by law authorities and many of the festival's executives and performers.

He said he believed at its peak time at 10 p.m., Saturday, he believed there were 100,000 people in the park and that "40,000 to 50,000 are paying customers. I'd be surprised."

However, he said he wouldn't know exactly how many paying persons there were until the tickets are counted.

$750,000 Taken In
He charged $15 a person. If 50,000 persons were in the park, he would have taken in $750,000. However, he had costs of buying the grounds, building the improvements, hiring around 400 persons including many security guards, paying the rock bands to perform and picking up the mountains of debris.

Songer said Monday he had no idea of how much money he may have made.

The prosecutor said "among the big winners at the festival was organized crime, which sold uncountable quantities of drugs."

He said that among the persons arrested were 15 who had been identified as among the top sellers of drugs.

Meanwhile, there were 42 arrests reported in Calhoun County, 14 in Kalamazoo, and 10 in Van Buren and Lenawee Counties.

The temperature on an average summer day at the South Pole is about 20 degrees below zero—relatively warm when contrasted with the Pole's winter temperatures, which can dip to below 113.

WITH OVER 100,000 ROCK FANS camping in front of the stage, a garbage problem soon arose. The sun-baked fumes, however, didn't seem to bother the youths Sunday as the Goose Lake festival went through its third and final day. A Jackson County prosecutor is trying to stop a "rerun" in the area in the future. (AP Wirephoto)

7 Persons Hurt As Police Clash With Negro Group

DETROIT (AP) — Seven persons suffered minor injuries and five were arrested Monday during a brief clash between police and a group selling a Black Panther newspaper in downtown Detroit.

Police said the trouble started when the best officer attempted to give a littering ticket to a young woman, one of those selling The Black Panther. The police spokesman said the officer was then assaulted and a melee ensued. Some witnesses reported, however, that the police struck first in response to verbal abuse.

The police spokesman said those injured included five policemen and two members of the group. None of the injuries required hospitalization.

Those arrested, including the young woman originally cited for littering, are being held on tentative charges of obstructing and resisting police officers. The police spokesman said the persons arrested refused to identify themselves.

The clash was the latest in a series involving police and members of The Black Panther.

Unemployment Measure Will Aid Millions

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Nixon has signed a bill under which unemployment insurance will be extended to about 4.7 million more workers and extra benefits will be available in times of high unemployment.

Congress balked at proposals to bring employees of large farms under the unemployment insurance system, but it did vote to include other large groups not hitherto covered.

These include an estimated 2.121 million employees of non-profit organizations, 1.132 million employees of smaller business firms, 940,000 employees of state hospitals and colleges, 210,000 salesmen, route drivers and similar workers, 190,000 persons engaged in processing agricultural products and 160,000 Americans employed abroad by U.S. firms.

The new law also provides for unemployment payments to be extended as much as 13 weeks, with federal help, when the national percentage of insured unemployment reaches 4.5 per cent, or in an individual state when the rate increases 20 per cent over the preceding year and is at least 4 per cent. The extra benefits would be effective generally beginning in 1972, but provision is made for states to start them sooner if they wish.

The federal unemployment tax is increased one-tenth of one per cent. The base on which it is levied goes from $3,000 of wages to $4,200, effective in 1972.

Festival At Goose Lake May Be First And Last

JACKSON, Mich. (AP) — The Jackson County prosecutor said Monday he would seek court action soon against Goose Lake Park, adding "We think we have enough evidence so there will never be another rock festival."

The vast majority of the estimated 200,000 youths who attended a three-day rock festival left the grounds by late Monday. Sheriff's deputies reported, however, about 500 youths remained in the area late Monday. Prosecutor Bruce Barton said he would attempt to prove the park was a public nuisance. Meanwhile, sheriff's deputies reported that 163 youths were arrested outside the festival grounds, the vast majority on narcotics charges.

'Doc' Greene, City Newsman, Taken By Death

DETROIT (AP) — Edgar C. "Doc" Greene, a widely known Michigan newspaper man, died unexpectedly today of an apparent heart attack.

Dr. Frederick Hyde, associate director of Detroit's New Grace Hospital, said Greene was rushed to the hospital by his wife after he awoke not feeling well.

Der. Hyde said Greene died within 30 minutes after his arrival of what appeared to be a heart attack. Greene was a long-time sufferer of diabetes.

Greene was the son of the late Sam Greene, widely known sports editor of The Detroit News, a job "Doc" later was to hold for a time.

The son later became a featured columnist for the News, but he said he was fired in June after it was disclosed Greene was associated with others in an attempt to promote a Cassius Clay-Joe Frazier world heavyweight championship fight in Detroit.

Friends and devotees of his column of "Doc" picked the News after his dismissal.

He was a Marine veteran of World War II, was wounded and won a battlefield promotion in the South Pacific.

"Doc" was a widely known character and world traveler, who numbered some of the world's greatest musicians and some of its lowly "barflies" among his personal friends. He was 50 years old.

crime. I keep asking him to stop. . . . He sort of ignores me." Kanarek told newsmen: "In this type of case a lawyer can represent only one litigant. Conflicts arise. An answer to a question may hurt one party and help another. Reasonable minds can differ at a trial."

Fitzgerald said the original defense plan was to proceed on the theory that all four defendants are innocent and dependent upon one another in their defense. Kanarek has "stepped from the fold," he said. Fitzgerald added that Kanarek possibly was doing a good job for his client but damaging the case of the women.

Granted immunity The squabble among attorneys came after the judge granted a defense request that Mrs. Kasabian be granted her promised immunity from prosecution. The defense attorneys said they felt once the grant was final she could recant her testimony if she wished without fear of retribution.

Mrs. Venne Is Delta Chairman Of Safety Group

EAST LANSING — Michigan Women For Highway Safety, a newly formed, state-wide group whose slogan is "Woman-power comes from the heart," announced the appointment of Mrs. Stanley Venne, 326 S. 6th St., Escanaba, as Delta County Committee Chairman for Region XI.

The new organization, the only woman's group in the state devoted solely to traffic safety problems, has the sponsorship of 25 women's organizations, the Michigan Office of Highway Safety Planning, Traffic Safety for Michigan, and Michigan State University's Highway Traffic Safety Center, which is acting as secretary.

Michigan Women For Highway Safety was formed to institute and support programs and legislation designed to lessen the rising toll of traffic accident victims and fatalities.

Any woman interested in joining the organization should contact Mrs. Venne.

Two Guerrilla Groups Reject Cease-Fire Plan

By The Associated Press

The only two Palestinian guerrilla organizations that supported Egyptian President Gamal Abdel Nasser's acceptance of the Middle East cease-fire withdrew their support Monday night, and a spokesman said they would join the other commandos' campaign to sabotage the truce.

Dr. Issam Saratawi, head of the Action Organization for the Liberation of Palestine, said his group and the Arab Palestine Organization thought Nasser would use the cease-fire only as a tactic to advance the Arab war effort against Israel.

"But after the cease-fire went into effect," Saratawi said, "we realized that our conclusion was wrong."

Two small guerrilla groups fell into line behind the major commando outfits after fighting in Jordan during the past week between pro and anti-Nasser guerrillas in which three Arabs were killed and 19 wounded.

With guerrilla activity continuing unabated against Israel, the Palestine Armed Struggle Command said 12 commandos have been killed by Israeli troops since the Israeli-Jordanian-Egyptian cease-fire went into effect at midnight Friday.

Market Clinging To Lower Level

NEW YORK (AP) — Stock prices slid gradually downward this morning as trading held to a lagging pace.

At noon the Dow Jones average of 30 industrial stocks had sagged 3.15 points to 710.77. Earlier it had been off more than 4 points.

Decliners held an almost 3-to-1 lead over advancing issues on the New York Stock Exchange.

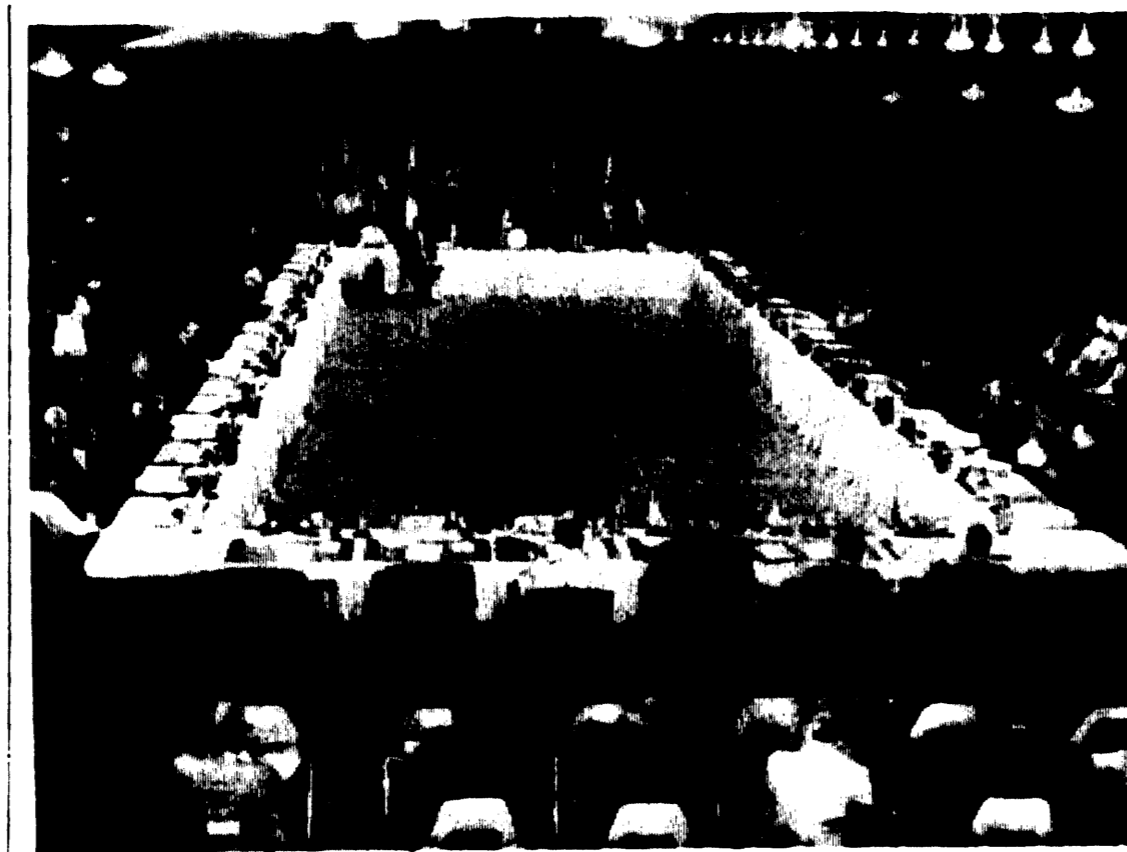

Analysts could point to no specific reasons for the market's decline other than technical factors and the historic slowdown in market activity that usually occurs in August.

Technically, the market's sinking below the 720 support level on the Dow Jones average Monday created further downward pressure on the market today, which was likely to be accelerated by the sluggish nature of the share turnover, these analysts observed.

Most brokers seemed to feel the market's backing and filling today was only a normal reaction to its recent upturn. They foresaw no immediate end to the base-building period.

Steels, motors, aircrafts, and rubber issues were off. All other categories were mixed.

At noon the Associated Press 60-stock average was down 1.9 at 235.8, with industrials off 2.6, rails off 1.2, and utilities off 0.8.

Demo Governors Set Talent Hunt For Nixon Rival

LAKE OF THE OZARKS, Mo. (AP) — Democratic governors have been urged to launch a political talent hunt after the 1970 elections, looking for a new White House contender to challenge President Nixon in 1972.

Gov. Robert E. McNair of South Carolina made the proposal, saying no one now rated among potential Democratic presidential nominees gives evidence of the kind of support it would take to defeat Nixon.

"I think we have an opportunity in 1972, but in my judgment, we're defaulting," McNair said. The Democrats talk politics today with Lawrence F. O'Brien, the party's national chairman. A prime concern: the effort to enlarge their ranks among governors. Currently only 18 states are governed by Democrats, and Republicans are in charge in all the major industrial states.

The 62nd National Governors Conference was at work on an agenda seeking vast new federal programs of aid to education, welfare financing and national health insurance.

Those proposals were in policy statements drafted by a committee led by Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York. He acknowledged that, if adopted, they would require a substantial increase in federal taxes.

The governors advanced those proposals before. In reaffirming them, the Rockefeller panel said there must be federal relief for a mounting financial crisis facing the states and cities.

Also due for a new prod from the governors: their five-year-old call upon Washington to send back to the states a share of federal tax revenues. The President has proposed a $500-million beginning on revenue sharing, but chances of congressional action this year are slim.

In their leadoff business session Monday, the governors sidetracked a proposal that they ask Congress for leeway to spend a portion of federal highway aid funds on other modes of transportation such as rapid transit and airports.

The vote was 23-12 to send it back to the conference Transportation Committee for rewriting. It may come up again Wednesday.

The governors voted to sue the federal government in a challenge to authority of the administration to withhold highway construction funds for economic reasons.

Hearings Begin On Campus Unrest JACKSON, Miss. (AP) — The President's Committee on Campus Unrest opened three days of hearings today into the violence at Jackson State College last May, during which two black youths died.

Faculty members and students were invited to testify as well as state and city officials.

The committee called the hearings in an effort to determine possible causes of the disorders in May which left two young blacks dead and nine others wounded when authorities opened fire on a college dormitory.

mittee headed by Sen. Birch Bayh, D-Ind., has approved a companion measure. Backers concede, however, there is enough opposition in the full committee at least to delay the amendment. Bayh is committed to pressing first for action on an amendment for direct election of the president, now ready for Senate action.

Until Monday, the House had never had a chance to vote on the women's amendment, which states that "equality of rights under the law shall not be denied or abridged by the United States or by any state on account of sex."

The Senate twice has approved similar amendments, but with a rider preserving legislation purportedly protecting women.

The outnumbered opposition to the current amendment, led by Celler, contended no one could tell what effect it would have on a wide variety of laws, such as those relating to paternity, name, military service, family matters and protection for working women. He promised early hearing if the measure were sent back to his committee. But the House brushed the suggestion aside.

"I don't want to be one of the boys," said Rep. Margaret M. Heckler, R-Mass., who laws discriminate against women on the job and in the home.

This time the women's champion was Rep. Gerald Ford of Michigan, R-Republican leader.

There may be some need, Ford admitted, but as a former legislator he said he was not a committee chairman.

Only Rep. Leonard K. Sullivan, D-Mo., of the 10 women members nasser the vote and she stayed away deliberately so as not to embarrass her female colleagues. She opposes the amendment, arguing as do some men that it will cut many jobs out of women.

B52s Scatter N. Vietnamese

SAIGON (AP) — U.S. B52 bombers attempted today to scatter North Vietnamese troops reported massing for an attack on a South Vietnamese artillery and patrol base near the northwest frontier with Laos.

Twenty of the big bombers unloaded 600 tons of bombs on enemy bunkers, base camps and staging areas within three miles of Fire base O'Reilly, one of five allied bases set up in the area to block an enemy advance into the populous coastal lowlands 20 miles to the east. Tactical fighter-bombers and helicopter gunships flew through anti-aircraft fire to pound North Vietnamese positions closer to the base.

Associated Press correspondent Willis Johnson reported from O'Reilly that despite the heavy air strikes, enemy gunners were still firing mortars into the base.

North Vietnamese infantrymen struck a few hours before dawn with machine guns, grenades and flame throwers, attacking government troops in night bivouac half a mile south of the base. Maj. Nguyen Van, commander of the base, said 15 North Vietnamese were killed and four government troops were wounded.

'Doc' Greene, City Newsman, Taken By Death

DETROIT (AP) — Edgar C. 'Doc' Greene, a widely known Michigan newspaper man, died unexpectedly today of an apparent heart attack.

Dr. Frederick Hyde, associate director of Detroit's New Grace Hospital, said Greene was rushed to the hospital by his wife after he awoke not feeling well.

Der. Hyde said Greene died within 30 minutes after his arrival of what appeared to be a heart attack. Greene was a long-time sufferer of diabetes.

Greene was the son of the late Sam Greene, widely known sports editor of The Detroit News, a job "Doc" later was to hold for a time.

The son later became a featured columnist for the News, but he said he was fired in June after it was disclosed Greene was associated with others in an attempt to promote a Cassius Clay-Joe Frazier world heavyweight championship fight in Detroit.

Friends and devotees of his column of "Doc" picketed the News after his dismissal.

He was a Marine veteran of World War II, was wounded and won a battlefield promotion in the South Pacific.

"Doc" was a widely known character and world traveler, who numbered some of the world's greatest musicians and some of its lowly "barflies" among his personal friends. He was 50 years old.

Kanarek told newsmen: "In this type of case a lawyer can represent only one litigant. Conflicts arise. An answer to a question may hurt one party and help another. Reasonable minds can differ at a trial."

Fitzgerald said the original defense plan was to proceed on the theory that all four defendants are innocent and dependent upon one another in their defense. Kanarek has "slipped from the fold," he said. Fitzgerald added that Kanarek possibly was doing a good job for his client but damaging the case of the women.

Granted Immunity
The squabble among attorneys came after the judge granted a defense request that Mrs. Kasabian be granted her promised immunity from prosecution. The defense attorneys said they felt once the grant was final she could recant her testimony if she wished without fear of retribution.

Mrs. Venne Is Delta Chairman Of Safety Group

EAST LANSING — Michigan Women For Highway Safety, a newly formed, state-wide group whose slogan is "Woman-power comes from the heart," announced the appointment of Mrs. Stanley Venne, 326 S. 6th St., Escanaba, as Delta County Committee Chairman for Region XI.

The new organization, the only woman's group in the state devoted solely to traffic safety problems, has the sponsorship of 25 women's organizations, the Michigan Office of Highway Safety Planning, Traffic Safety for Michigan, and Michigan State University's Highway Traffic Safety Center, which is acting as secretariat.

Michigan Women For Highway Safety was formed to institute and support programs and legislation designed to lessen the rising toll of traffic accident victims and fatalities.

Any woman interested in joining the organization should contact Mrs. Venne.

Two Guerrilla Groups Reject Cease-Fire Plan

By The Associated Press

The only two Palestinian guerrilla organizations that supported Egyptian President Gamal Abdel Nasser's acceptance of the Middle East cease-fire withdrew their support Monday night, and a spokesman said they would join the other commandos' campaign to sabotage the truce.

Dr. Issam Saratawi, head of the Action Organization for the Liberation of Palestine, said his group and the Arab Palestine Organization thought Nasser would use the cease-fire only as a tactic to advance the Arab war effort against Israel.

"But after the cease-fire went into effect," Saratawi said, "we realized that our conclusion was wrong."

Two small guerrilla groups fell into line behind the major commando outfits after fighting in Jordan during the past week between pro and anti-Nasser guerrillas in which three Arabs were killed and 19 wounded.

With guerrilla activity continuing unabated against Israel, the Palestine Armed Struggle Command said 12 commandos have been killed by Israeli troops since the Israeli-Jordanian-Egyptian cease-fire went into effect at midnight Friday.

Market Clinging To Lower Level

NEW YORK (AP) — Stock prices slid gradually downward this morning as trading held to a lagging pace.

At noon the Dow Jones average of 30 industrial stocks had sagged 3.15 points to 710.77. Earlier it had been off more than 4 points.

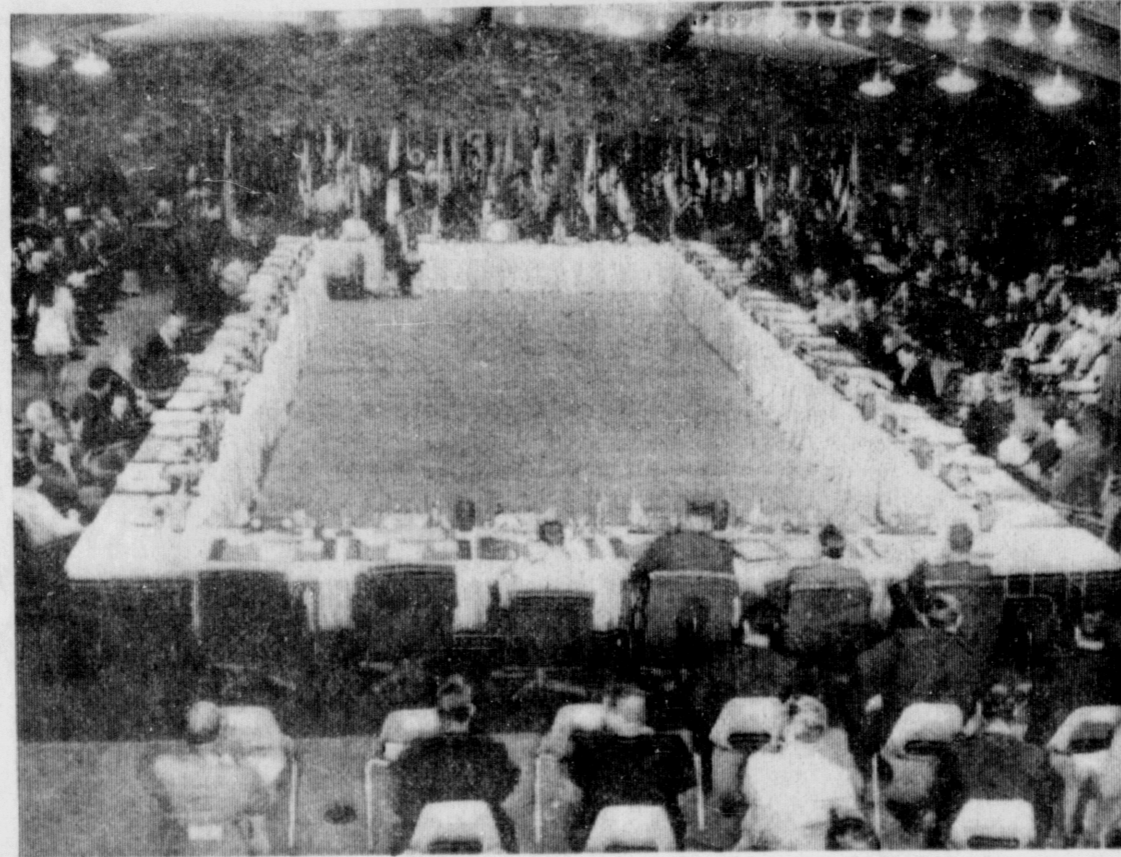

Decliners held an almost 3-to-1 lead over advancing issues on the New York Stock Exchange. Analysts could point to no specific reasons for the market's decline other than technical factors and the historic slowdown in market activity that usually occurs in August.

Technically, the market's sinking below the 720 support level on the Dow Jones average Monday created further downward pressure on the market today, which was likely to be accelerated by the sluggish nature of the share turnover, these analysts observed.

Most brokers seemed to feel the market's backing and filling today was only a normal reaction to its recent upturn. They foresaw no immediate end to the base-building period.

Steels, motors, aircrafts, and rubber issues were off. All other categories were mixed.

At noon the Associated Press 60-stock average was down 1.9 at 235.8, with industrials off 2.6, rails off 1.2, and utilities off 0.8.

THIS WAS SCENE Monday morning as the 62nd conference of the nation's governors got underway at Osage Beach, Mo. The meeting is being held at Tan-Tar-A resort on the Lake of the Ozarks in central Missouri. Gov. William Milliken of Michigan is among those in attendance. (AP Wirephoto)

Demo Governors Set Talent Hunt For Nixon Rival

LAKE OF THE OZARKS, Mo. (AP) — Democratic governors

have been urged to launch a political talent hunt after the 1970 elections, looking for a new White House contender to challenge President Nixon in 1972.

Gov. Robert E. McNair of South Carolina made the proposal, saying no one now rated among potential Democratic presidential nominees gives evidence of the kind of support it would take to defeat Nixon.

"I think we have an opportunity in 1972, but in my judgment, we're defaulting," McNair said. The Democrats talk politics today with Lawrence F.

O'Brien, the party's national chairman. A prime concern: the effort to enlarge their ranks among governors. Currently only 18 states are governed by Democrats, and Republicans are in charge in all the major industrial states.

The 62nd National Governors Conference was at work on an agenda seeking vast new federal programs of aid to education, welfare financing and national health insurance.

Those proposals were in policy statements drafted by a committee led by Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York. He acknowledged that, if adopted, they would require a substantial increase in federal taxes.

The governors advanced those proposals before. In reaffirming them, the Rockefeller panel said there must be federal relief for a mounting financial crisis facing the states and cities.

Also due for a new prod from the governors: their five-year-old call upon Washington to send back to the states a share of federal tax revenues. The President has proposed a $500-million beginning on revenue sharing, but chances of congressional action this year are slim. In their leadoff business session Monday, the governors sidetracked a proposal that they ask Congress for leeway to spend a portion of federal highway aid funds on other modes of transportation such as rapid transit and airports.

The vote was 23-12 to send it back to the conference Transportation Committee for rewriting. It may come up again Wednesday.

The governors voted to sue the federal government in a challenge to authority of the administration to withhold highway construction funds for economy.

Hearings Begin On Campus Unrest

JACKSON, Miss. (AP) — The President's Committee on Campus Unrest opened three days of hearings today into the violence at Jackson State College last May, during which two black youths died.

Faculty members and students were invited to testify as well as state and city officials.

The committee called the hearings in an effort to determine possible causes of the disorders in May which left two young blacks dead and nine others wounded when authorities opened fire on a college dormitory.

Only Rep. Leonor K. Sullivan, D-Mo., of the 10 women members missed the vote and she stayed away deliberately so as not to embarrass her female colleagues. She opposes the amendment, arguing as do some men that it will end many protections for women.

The 81 cosponsors of the Senate version "never expected to have it pass the House and now they're really on the spot," Mrs. Chisholm said.

B52s Scatter N. Vietnamese

SAIGON (AP) — U.S. B52 bombers attempted today to scatter North Vietnamese troops reported massing for an attack on a South Vietnamese artillery and patrol base near the northwest frontier with Laos.

Twenty of the big bombers unloaded 600 tons of bombs on enemy bunkers, base camps and staging areas within three miles of Fire base O'Reilly, one of five allied bases set up in the area to block an enemy advance into the populous coastal lowlands 20 miles to the east. Tactical fighter-bombers and helicopter gunships flew through anti-aircraft fire to pound North Vietnamese positions closer to the base.

Associated Press correspondent Willis Johnson reported from O'Reilly that despite the heavy air strikes, enemy gunners were still firing mortars into the base.

North Vietnamese infantrymen struck a few hours before dawn with machine guns, grenades and flame throwers, attacking government troops in night bivouac half a mile south of the base. Maj. Nguyen Van, commander of the base, said 15 North Vietnamese and one South Vietnamese were killed and four government troops were wounded.

Retires From Baseball

Jim Bouton Calls Own 'Third Strike'

HOUSTON (AP) — Pitcher Jim Bouton, author of the controversial book, "Ball Four," has called his own third strike. He said he just didn't have it anymore and announced his retirement Monday from baseball.

Bouton said he didn't want to spend the next couple of years in the minor leagues trying to get his once-famed knuckleball back. He made the announcement at a news conference at the apartment complex where he lives.

Bouton had pitched and lost two games for Oklahoma City, where the Houston Astros sent him July 31.

Fieldhouse Floor Work Under Way

MARQUETTE, Mich. — Work is under way on the installation of a concrete floor in the C.B. Hedgecock Fieldhouse at Northern Michigan University.

The concrete, which replaces the dirt and clay floor used in the fieldhouse since the building opened in 1958, is the first step in a plan which calls for the installation of synthetic type surfaces for basketball and other indoor activities.

Peter O'Dovero Construction Co. of Marquette is the contractor on the concrete project after submitting the low bid of $16,400. Work on the four-inch reinforced slab is expected to be completed in about three weeks.

No target date has been specified for the placement of the synthetic surfaces, but it is expected this phase of the job will be undertaken as soon as financially feasible.

The Hedgecock Fieldhouse is one of the most familiar campus buildings to Upper Peninsula residents. In addition to University events such as basketball games and commencement exercises, the Fieldhouse is the site of the regional basketball tournament that is considered the championship round for the U.P. high school teams, an event that draws thousands of fans and is televised peninsula-wide.

It is also the site of the annual Shrine Circus and is used for dozens of student activities during the academic year.

The concrete floor and subsequent synthetic surfaced areas will have little effect on the schedule of activities and will, in fact, provide a broader use of the facility.

Physical education classes in the fieldhouse will not be affected by the change from dirt to concrete nor will be bulk of athletic events. The one exception is indoor football practice, sometimes necessitated by inclement weather late in the season. Such indoor sessions will be limited to light workouts when needed.

It is likely that the portable wood basketball floor, used for a dozen years for both NMU games and high school tournaments, may remain in use for one more season before being replaced by a synthetic surfaced court.

The change in the floor surface of the fieldhouse is the second interior facelift within the past year. The inside of the building was brightened considerably by a paint job with a color scheme that made partial use of NMU's traditional gold and green. That was followed by a student project that decorated the area with pennants of basketball opponents and the lettering "Welcome to Wildest Country."

bouncing around in the minor leagues to perfect it," he said. "I'll have two kids in school this fall and three next year. The minors are a very rough life for a family."

He said he'd rather make the break now instead of next spring because of job opportunities which might not be available then.

Meanwhile, the 31-year-old pitcher plans to see if he can make it in the semipro, indicating he will play for the Ridge-wood Paramus Barons near his home in Wyckoff, N.J.

"Maybe they'll let me play if I can come up with a pitch," he laughed.

He isn't eligible to play for the Barons until next year.

He also will write a sequel to his best-seller.

Bouton said he decided to quit Saturday and tried to contact Astro General Manager Spec Richardson Sunday night.

The right-hander flew to Houston from Oklahoma City late Sunday night and told the club Monday morning he wanted to be put on the voluntary retirement list.

Under Suspension
He is technically under suspension until the retirement is official.

Houston Manager Harry Walker said when the book came out this year that Bouton's pitching might suffer because he would be having interviews while on the road.

Bouton acknowledged Monday that it had.

"I've been having trouble with the knuckleball this year and it looks like it might take me another two or three years

He has drawn no fines from the Astros, although some consider the book critical of Richardson and Walker. He was called in for a conference with Baseball Commissioner Bowie Kuhn.

Bouton, who entered the majors with the New York Yankees in 1962 and stayed with them until 1968, has been severely criticized by his peers for the book, which includes his diary on locker room conversations and opinions of his Yankee teammates and other ball players.

Tiger Rally Falls Short By One, Team Loses 11-10

BOSTON (AP) — "You never give up in any game, particularly in this ball park," Detroit Manager Mayo Smith said after the Tigers scored 7 ninth inning runs in the three-game series. "Anything can happen here. No lead is safe. If you fall behind, you just keep plugging and hoping. We made a good comeback, but just missed."

Everything poses a challenge, including an eight-run lead in the ninth inning, for the struggling Boston Red Sox this season.

Late Inning Jitters
The Red Sox survived another case of late inning jitters and held on for an 11-10 victory Monday as the Detroit Tigers' seven-run ninth fell just short with the tying run on base.

"It's all part of the game—the win is the big thing," Boston Manager Eddie Kasko said. "You don't like to see a big lead cut into, but sometimes there's little you can do about it."

The Red Sox appeared en route to an easy victory in the rubber of a three-game series. Starter Sonny Siebert enjoyed an 11-3 lead and had allowed just three harmless hits after Jim Northrup's two-run homer in the third.

Everything Goes Wrong
Then everything went wrong for Siebert and the Red Sox. Norm Cash led off the ninth with a single and Siebert issued his only walk to Bill Freehan. Don Wert forced Cash at third, but Dalton Jones beat out a slow bouncer, filling the bases.

Gates Brown looped an opposite field pinch single to left, scoring Freehan and Wert, and Spark Lyle replaced Siebert. Lyle fanned Dick McAuliffe and after Mickey Stanley walked, Boston appeared out of the jam as Al Kaline grounded to shortstop Rico Petrocelli.

However, second baseman Mike Andrews dropped Petrocelli's short flip. Jones scoring and the bases remained loaded. Northrup blooped a two-run single to shallow left center and Cash followed with another two-run hit to short right.

NL Castoff Saves Game
Chuck Hartenstein, a National League castoff recently picked up by the Red Sox as a free agent, replaced Lyle and ended the game by striking out Freehan. Hartenstein was mobbed by his new teammates in a scene resembling a pennant-clinching game.

Petrocelli, who set an American League shortstop record by hitting 40 homers last year, agreed with Smith, claiming that Fenway Park is one of the better sites for hitters because of the background.

"You see the ball better here," Petrocelli said. "Things just happen at any time. All of a sudden, boom. Sparky was throwing good, but he couldn't stop them. You just don't know how to stop things when soft hit balls start falling in. Of course, it's all part of the game."

The Red Sox had their share of sloop safeties and seeing-eye jobs among their 16 hits. Billy Conigliaro, with a three-run homer and four RBIs, and Reggie Smith had three hits apiece. Carl Yastrzemski, hitting his league-leading average to .329, Don Pavletich and Jon Kennedy collected two hits apiece.

Mets Use Blackout To Short-Circuit Bucs

By The Associated Press
When the blackout finally was lifted at Pittsburgh, the lights went out for the Pirates.

New York's resilient Mets parlayed 10 hits, 11 walks and three Pittsburgh errors with the crisp pitching of Tom Seaver for a 10-2 victory Monday night in a game delayed 27 minutes at the start by a power shutdown at the Pirates' new Three Rivers Stadium.

No. 17 For Seaver
Seaver bounced back after a wobbly start to scatter six hits, pocket his 17th victory of the season and propel the Mets within 2½ lengths of first place Pittsburgh in the National League East.

In the only other activity in the majors, Oakland trimmed Minnesota 7-3 and Boston outlasted Detroit 11-10.

After a fire broke out in the vicinity of the stadium, power lines controlling the lights were shut off as a precautionary measure as the Pirates trotted onto the field for the start of the game.

"The only time the lights ever went out on me before," said New York Manager Gil Hodges, "was when I was hit by a pitch in batting practice at Washington a couple of years ago."

The sudden blackout left Hodges, Seaver, Pirates' starter Dock Ellis and a crowd of 47,148 in the dark—in more ways than one.

"I wasn't sure what was going on," said the Met ace, who was to work with three days rest—instead of his normal four—for the third time this year and had just completed his 20-minute pre-game warm-up. "I certainly didn't want to get pushed back because of something like that."

When the lights came back on, the Pirates quickly set Seaver back, scoring twice with the help of three walks and Al Oliver's double.

Tom Seaver

Then the Pirates' eclipse began.

Two walks and a throwing error by first baseman Oliver on Seaver's potential ending-ending double play tap contributed to a five-run New York binge in the second.

Ellis went out for a pinch hit in the bottom of the inning and Tommie Agee socked a two-run triple off reliever Dick Colpaert in the third. Colpaert and Jim Nelson then walked five more in the fourth as the Mets scored another pair with-out a hit for a 9-2 bulge.

Ex-Pirate Donn Clendenon, listily jeered by the big crowd each time he came to bat, cl-maxed a 3-for-3 night in the seventh with his 16th homer of the season.

Seaver, meanwhile, settled down to blank the Pirates on five harmless singles over the final eight innings, bringing his season mark to 17-6 and earning the Mets a split of the four-game set.

Played Like Champs

"If we played like we did tonight," he said, "we would have won all four. We played like the world champions we are. If we play and hit like that, we'll be in good shape the rest of the way."

While the Mets closed ground in the NL East, the A's cut into Minnesota's once-gaping American League West lead. They cuffed five pitchers for 19 hits, including a home run, two doubles and a single by Rick Monday in trimming the Twins for the third time in two days.

The loss left the Twins 6½ games ahead of second place California and seven up on Oakland.

Rookies cut were Jim Heckock, 6-2, 180, defensive back from Muskingum; Max Cross-shaw, 6-1, 232, linebacker from Virginia Tech; Dan Eckstein, Swanson, 6-0, 200, running back, Presbyterian making his second try at earning a spot on the team; Les Perry, 6-0, 213, running back from Concordia; Bob Swanson, 6-0, 200, running back from Albert Lea, Minn.; Jim Huff, 6-1, 193, a kicker from Miami, and Gary Steivers, 6-0, 190, a kicker from Boise State, Idaho.

Jim Bouton Calls Own 'Third Strike'

HOUSTON (AP) — Pitcher Jim Bouton, author of the controversial book, "Ball Four," has called his own third strike.

He said he just didn't have it anymore and announced his retirement Monday from baseball.

Bouton said he didn't want to spend the next couple of years in the minor leagues trying to get his once-famed knuckleball back. He made the announcement at a news conference at the apartment complex where he lives.

Bouton had pitched and lost two games for Oklahoma City, where the Houston Astros sent him July 31.

Fieldhouse Floor Work Under Way

MARQUETTE, Mich. — Work is under way on the installation of a concrete floor in the C.B. Hedgecock Fieldhouse at Northern Michigan University.

The concrete, which replaces the dirt and clay floor used in the fieldhouse since the building opened in 1958, is the first step in a plan which calls for the installation of synthetic type surfaces for basketball and other indoor activities.

Peter O'Dover Construction Co. of Marquette is the contractor on the concrete project after submitting the low bid of $16,400. Work on the four-inch reinforced slab is expected to be completed in about three weeks.

No target date has been specified for the placement of the synthetic surfaces, but it is expected this phase of the job will be undertaken as soon as financially feasible.

The Hedgecock Fieldhouse is one of the most familiar campus buildings to Upper Peninsula residents. In addition to University events such as basketball games and commencement exercises, the Fieldhouse is the site of the regional basketball tournament that is considered the championship round for the U.P. high school teams, an event that draws thousands of fans and is televised peninsula-wide.

It is also the site of the annual Shrine Circus and is used for dozens of student activities during the academic year.

The concrete floor and subsequent synthetic surfaced areas will have little effect on the schedule of activities and will, in fact, provide a broader use of the facility.

Physical education classes in the fieldhouse will not be affected by the change from dirt to concrete nor will be bulk of athletic events. The one exception is indoor football practice, sometimes necessitated by inclement weather late in the season. Such indoor sessions will be limited to light workouts when needed.

It is likely that the portable wood basketball floor, used for a dozen years for both NMU games and high school tournaments, may remain in use for one more season before being replaced by a synthetic surfaced court.

The change in the floor surface of the Fieldhouse is the second interior facelifting within the past year. The inside of the building was brightened considerably by a paint job with a color scheme that made partial use of NMU's traditional gold and green. That was followed by a student project that decorated the area with pennants of basketball opponents and the lettering "Welcome to Wildcat Country."

bouncing around in the minor leagues to perfect it," he said.

"I'll have two kids in school this fall and three next year. The minors are a very rough life for a family."

He said he'd rather make the break now instead of next spring because of job opportunities which might not be available then.

Meanwhile, the 31-year-old pitcher plans to see if he can make it in the semipro, indicating he will play for the Ridge-wood Paramus Barons near his home in Wyckoff, N.J.

"Maybe they'll let me play if I can come up with a pitch," he laughed.

He isn't eligible to play for the Barons until next year.

He also will write a sequel to his best-seller.

Bouton said he decided to quit Saturday and tried to contact Astro General Manager Spec Richardson Sunday night.

The right-hander flew to Houston from Oklahoma City late Sunday night and told the club Monday morning he wanted to be put on the voluntary retirement list.

Under Suspension
He is technically under suspension until the retirement is official.

Houston Manager Harry Walker said when the book came out this year that Bouton's pitching might suffer because he would be having interviews while on the road.

Bouton acknowledged Monday that it had.

Tiger Rally Falls Short By One, Team Loses 11-10

BOSTON (AP) — "You never give up in any game, particularly in this ball park," Detroit Manager Mayo Smith said after the Tigers scored 7 ninth-inning runs in the three-game series. "Anything can happen here. No lead is safe. If you fall way behind, you just keep plugging and hoping. We made a good comeback, but just missed."

Everything poses a challenge, including an eight-run lead in the ninth inning, for the struggling Boston Red Sox this season.

Late Inning Jitters
The Red Sox survived another case of late inning jitters and held on for an 11-10 victory Monday as the Detroit Tigers' seven-run ninth fell just short of the tying run on base.

"It's all part of the game—the win is the big thing," Boston Manager Eddie Kasko said. "You don't like to see a big lead cut into, but sometimes there's little you can do about it."

The Red Sox appeared en route to an easy victory in the rubber of a three-game series. Starter Sonny Siebert enjoyed an 11-3 lead and had allowed just three harmless hits after Jim Northrup's two-run homer in the third.

Everything Goes Wrong
Then everything went wrong for Siebert and the Red Sox. Norm Cash led off the ninth with a single and Siebert issued his only walk to Bill Freehan. Don Wert forced Cash at third, but Dalton Jones beat out a slow bouncer, filling the bases.

Gates Brown looped an opposite field pinch single to left, scoring Freehan and Wert, and Spark Lyle replaced Siebert. Lyle fanned Dick McAuliffe and after Mickey Stanley walked, Boston appeared out of the jam as Al Kaline grounded to shortstop Rico Petrocelli.

However, second baseman Mike Andrews dropped Petrocelli's short flip, Jones scoring and the bases remained loaded.

Northrup blooped a two-run single to shallow left center and Cash followed with another two-run hit to short right.

NL Castoff Saves Game
Chuck Hartenstein, a National League castoff recently picked up by the Red Sox as a free agent, replaced Lyle and ended the game by striking out Freehan. Hartenstein was mobbed by his new teammates in a scene resembling a pennant-clinching game.

Petrocelli, who set an American League shortstop record by hitting 40 homers last year, agreed with Smith, claiming that Fenway Park is one of the better sites for hitters because of the background.

Girls Team To Play
A part of Wednesday night's doubleheader will be one of the feature games of the year as the top Girl's softball team in the area, Lombardi's Bar will tangle with the men's team from the Jolly Roger Bar. Both games will be benefit games with the proceeds going to the Retarded Childrens Fund.

River Post, after battling on even terms with Lark's for the first three innings, scored single runs in the fourth and sixth inning before exploding for five runs in the last inning to remain the only unbeaten team in the tournament.

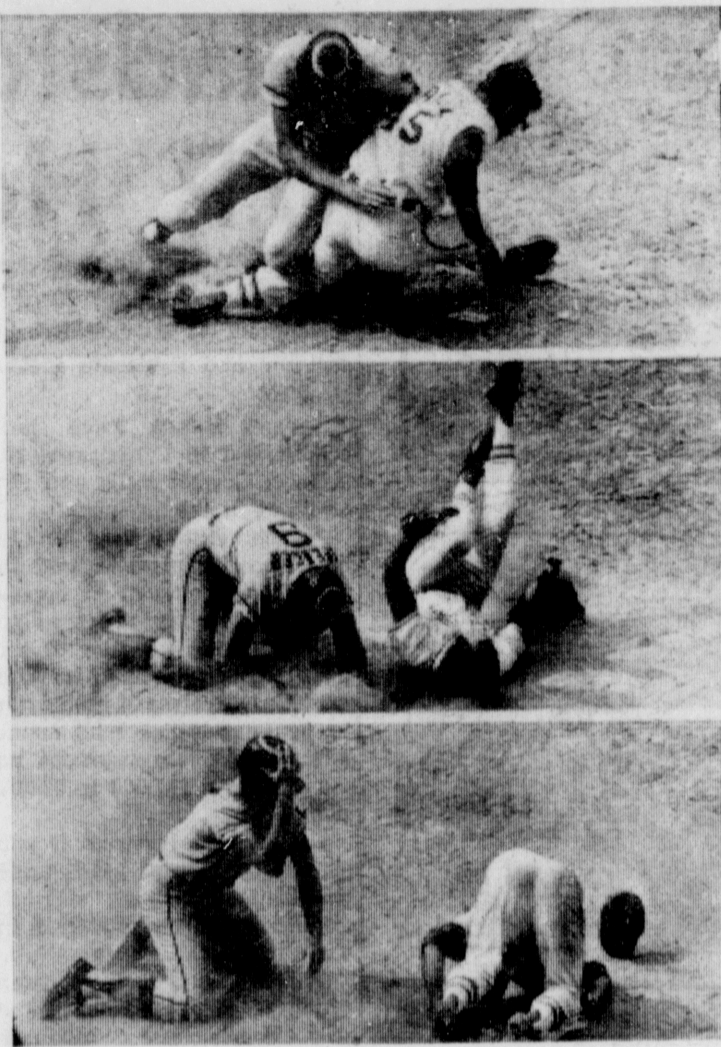

River Post Takes Lead
In the fourth inning, Carl White started the River Post off by lining a single to centerfield and with Ralph McGary running for White, Wally Marenger connected for a long single to left, scoring McGary with the go ahead run.

The seventh inning uprising for the River Post was highlighted by Dan Evan's two-run homer. Evans and Marenger sparked the attack for the Post team as each had three safeties.

Phil Hiney went the distance and picked up the mound verdict over Bob Moran of Lark's.

Gladstone May Join U.P. Home Program

Gladstone may join several other Upper Peninsula cities in a program to provide housing for low and moderate income families.

Several homes have been constructed in Ontonagon, Negaunee, Crystal Falls and other cities in the program.

A representative of an Inter-Faith organization told the City Commission at its regular meeting Monday night at the City Hall that modular or sectional type housing is being provided by the organization to young families who cannot afford the down payment necessary for a $17,000 to $24,000 home.

He said the program is subsidized by federal funds under the national housing act for families within a moderate income bracket.

Thomas Quayle, a representative of Happy Homes, Inc., said homes are constructed with either dry or paneled walls, a basement and come equipped with all plumbing and electrical facilities. Total price includes the cost of lot, and all transactions are approved by FHA and are completely state inspected, he said.

Interested in Lots

The group is interested in purchase of several lots in Bay Park addition at the east end of Michigan Ave. and requested an opportunity to talk with the City Commission on the program. The matter was referred to the City Planning Commission for recommendation. The Planning Commission meets at 7:30 p. m. today.

Several residents of N. 15th St. questioned the proposed double sealing of N. 15th St. They all were in agreement with the proposed method, but wanted assurance that proper shoulders and ditches will be provided for drainage in the area.

Cost of double seal to property owners was estimated at 50 cents per front foot or $1 per lineal foot and the city will prepare the road and install shoulders and ditches. City Manager Howard Keeton told the group the work probably will be done this fall.

Lady Golfers Set Tournament For Next Week

The ladies of the Gladstone Golf Club will sponsor a tournament Aug. 17 through Aug. 20. The championship match will be played Thursday afternoon with the tournament dinner and awarding of prizes in the evening. Golfers should sign up by Friday, this week, tournament officials said.

The committee for the tournament includes Jane Empson, Joan Anderson, Lois Hess, Mary Cochran, Anita Lewis and Eunice Watson.

Last week's winners were Marion Tibergien with a low gross of 45. Pan Anderson, low net 36; Millie Stenlund and Dorothy Nichols with low putts of 16 each. Sandy Butler was closest to the flag on 4.

Final league matches will be played Thursday with Peg Reese, Lea Rodman, Naomi Hult and Millie Orton serving on the dinner committee.

Pairings for Thursday are as follows: S. Willis-M. Wilkes; P. Kindy-P. Anderson; M. Buckman - K. Sundelius; J. Marmalick - E. Belongie; L. Srock-L. Rodman; S. Trombley-J. Bastien; D. Gilbert-G. Vanderhoff; R. Ivory-K. Vandonnel; D. Nichols-A. Davis; P. Reese-R. Sturdy; B. Peterson-F. Burke; J. Empson-M. Stenlund; R. Lasky-J. Gillis; S. Boutlier - M. Ottensman; E. Skellenger-L. Holm; J. Anderson-M. Tibergien; M. Nivison-M. Harris; D. Coulter-A. Altesse and B. Farrell-M. Trombley.

LaPine Cited

The Commission received a letter from the Michigan Water Association recommending James LaPine, son of Mr. and Mrs. Michael LaPine, be cited for his rescue of Mrs. Norman Carignan at the time of the drowning of her husband near the water plant. The commission adopted a resolution to send the facts to the National Waterworks Association by Oct. 1 for an award for LaPine.

Henry Gingrass, 424 Wisconsin Ave., presented a petition signed by 102 senior citizens requesting a reduction in water rates.

Commissioner Arne Anderson said that while he agrees that the raise in rates means an additional burden to those on fixed income, it would mean sharing the deficit with the remaining residents. He said the rates were set to defray the cost of water treatment and must be met.

Commissioner George Young said that many retirees can afford the raise as well as anyone.

City Manager Keeton said that meters might be the answer for elderly residents if they don't use much water watering lawns and gardens. The petition was placed on file.

House Group Raps Pornography Study

WASHINGTON (AP) — A House subcommittee is fuming at White House researchers who monitored the responses of 23 young men as they watched a stag movie. Chairman Robert N.C. Nix, D-Pa., demands an explanation.

Nix termed the experiment revolting, and said he would have subpoenaed Dr. James L. Howard, Clifford S. Reiffer and Myron B. Liptzin of the President's Commission on Pornography if they hadn't volunteered to testify.

The trio, from the University of North Carolina, have said the experiment demonstrated prolonged exposure to pornography becomes boring.

Nix said Monday the experiment encouraged students to violate moral standards at a time when they are questioning all values established by their elders.

"I want to know what the justification of this experiment is that it warrants breakdown of the culture," Nix said in an interview. "I don't think any culture has survived without fixed moral values."

"There have been experiments that seemed questionable but proved to benefit all mankind," he added. "If this proves to be that, I'll accept it. But I'll be damned if I'll take it like it is."

The commission's preliminary finding that pornography does not cause sex crimes and is not harmful was challenged in opening testimony before Nix's post-al operations subcommittee by a Salt Lake City psychologist.

"Because of the extreme complexity of the problem and the uniqueness of individual human experience," Dr. Victor B. Cline, said in prepared testimony, "it is doubtful that we will ever have absolutely convincing scientific proof that pornography is or isn't harmful."

Cline, chairman of the Salt Lake Area Youth Protection Committee, said reports that sex crimes dropped 31 per cent in Denmark after pornography was legalized are misleading because public indecency, voyeurism, male prostitution and sale of pornography are no longer counted as crimes in Denmark.

Sorties Over Cambodia Hit 50 Every Day

WASHINGTON (AP) — U.S. fighter bombers and gun ships have doubled the number of air strikes against enemy targets in Cambodia this month, Pentagon sources said in confirming reports of stepped up U.S. air attacks.

Since Aug. 1, the sources said, U.S. warplanes have flown an average of 50 attack sorties a day against enemy troops and supplies throughout Cambodia as compared to a daily average of 24 during July.

A sortie is one flight by one plane.

In addition, there have been an undisclosed number of photo-reconnaissance flights.

The sources gave no reason for the sharp increase in U.S. air raids which coincided with a step-up in ground fighting between the Cambodians and communist forces.

Eyewitness reports from American newsmen say U.S. planes, loaded with napalm and conventional bombs, are being used to provide direct combat air support for beleaguered Cambodian troops.

The Nixon administration has repeatedly denied giving close air support to the Cambodians. In its latest policy statement Monday, the Pentagon declared, "The President's policy on air operations in Cambodia is that we will conduct operations to interdict enemy supplies, communications and personnel when such operations will enhance the safety and security of U.S. allied personnel in South Vietnam."

The statement acknowledged, however, that "these operations may also have a dual benefit that may serve our purposes and at the same time serve the Cambodian government."

Court Rejects Defense Plea In My Lai Case

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP) — A three-judge federal court has refused to dismiss the military charges against two soldiers charged in the alleged massacre at My Lai and, at the same time, declined to remove the cases from military jurisdiction.

Attorneys had asked the federal panel to enjoin the Army from trying Sgt. Esequiel Torres, 22, of Brownsville, Tex., and Spec. 4 Robert W. T'Souvas, 21, of San Jose, Calif.

The decision said the contention of the soldiers "failed to overcome the strong policy reasons for requiring exhaustion of military remedies in these cases."

"The traditional manner of seeking relief in the federal courts from constitutionally defective court-martial action is by habeas corpus," it continued. "Should plaintiffs be convicted in the military courts this course will be available to them."

Attorneys for the two soldiers had contended that a trial by court-martial would violate their constitutional rights on about 15 grounds.

Torres is charged with the murder of four Vietnamese civilians—including one by hanging—and the attempted murder of at least three others. T'Souvas is charged with two counts of premeditated murder.

Both were members of Company C, 1st Battalion, 20th Infantry when the Americal Division company made a sweep through My Lai in March 1968.

Pacifist Set To Take Stand Vs. Draftees

REDDING, Calif. (AP) — A 44-year-old Methodist minister who opposes the draft and says he is a pacifist is the newest member of this Northern California city's draft board.

But the Rev. John V. Albright says he will vote to send youths into uniform if they don't meet the legal standards for conscientious objectors.

"I plan to give the widest possible latitude to conscience," says the minister. "but I'm going to uphold the law to the best of my knowledge."

The Rev. Mr. Albright says he became a conscientious objector as a result of his Army experiences shortly after World War II with the American occupation troops in Japan. He has also been active in antipoverty and antiwar activities in recent years.

He says he has counseled young men in his church who are conscientious objectors, "but I have never counseled anyone to become a conscientious objector—that's something he has to work out for himself."

Asked how he would deal with a youth who objects to the Indochina war but doesn't fit the legal definition of a conscientious objector, the minister said: "I think his objection is valid, but I think as far as the law is concerned, we have no choice but to say he doesn't qualify as a conscientious objector."

The Rev. Mr. Albright was nominated to the five-man board by Shasta County Superior Court Judge Richard W. Abbe.

"There's room on the board for all points of view," the judge said.

The Rev. Mr. Albright, father of five children, is pastor of the United Methodist church in Redding, a 12,000-resident mountain community about 150 miles north of San Francisco.

Three-Car Crash Fatal To Man, 65

KALAMAZOO (AP) —Barrie Morris, 65, of Three Rivers, was killed Monday in a three car accident at a Kalamazoo intersection.

Two passengers in Morris' car were listed in fair condition at a nearby hospital. The people in the other two cars escaped injury.

FIRST "18" TO REGISTER to vote in Chicago is Sally Comerford, shown taking the oath at the Chicago Board of Elections in City Hall. She got there at 6:30 a. m. so she could be No. 1. Cards of those 18-21 are being filed separately so they can be destroyed if the courts overturn the law permitting the 18-year-olds to vote.

Goose Lake Festival Massive 'Pot Party,' Legislator Charges

EAST LANSING (AP) — The Michigan State Police Director Monday contradicted reports of "undisturbed trafficking in narcotics" at the Goose Lake Rock Festival and said some "major pushers" had been arrested.

"A predetermined plan was put in motion and carried out by State Police narcotic officers during the festival," said Col. Frederick Davids. "As a result of this plan, individuals trafficking in narcotics and dangerous drugs have been arrested. Others are being sought."

Davids said that there was "never at any time a 'hands-off' policy in connection with the festival—only a change in police policy to allow for the deployment of the investigations and subsequent arrests of persons involved in a manner which was the safest for all concerned."

Davids said the many thousands of persons at the festival made it "very difficult" to carry out routine police procedures.

so a different plan was used. The director's comments followed reports that State Police as well as Jackson County sheriff's deputies remained outside the festival area, where narcotics were being sold.

Some 163 persons were arrested outside the park area.

In the wake of the festival, meanwhile, a Democratic state senator leveled a barrage of criticism at Gov. William Milliken and law enforcement officials.

Sen. Basil Brown of Detroit cited Milliken's statement of "outrage" issued after the festival and called the comment "an after-the-fact admission... unrealistic and politically self-serving."

"My outrage," Brown said, "is not so much directed at the behavior of the young people—the vast majority of whom deserve congratulations for not indulging in any physical violence—but rather I am outraged at the lack of action on the part of (those) responsible for enforcing state and federal narcotics laws."

"Assuming that only half of those in attendance were selling or using drugs, Jackson County, Mich., has been the scene of one of the most massive and flagrant violations of Michigan penal laws in the history of our state and our nation," continued Brown, an attorney.

"It is little wonder that young people laugh at law enforcement and literally have no respect for the law."

Brown, a Negro, said he did not believe such "inaction" would have prevailed if the festival had been on Detroit's Belle Isle and the participants been largely black ghetto residents.

"I have spent almost 14 years in the Michigan State Senate attempting to write penal laws that were realistic and attempting to make available state funds to help rehabilitate those who have become addicted to narcotics or drugs dependent," Brown said.

"With no more assistance from the law enforcement community and from the governor's office than I have seen this past weekend, I for one, am ready to throw in the towel."

Meanwhile, Sen. N. Lorraine Beebe, R-Deerborn, announced plans for a public hearing Monday to discuss rock festivals.

"I have worked closely with young people for many years and feel it my responsibility to see that their lives are protected through appropriate legislative action," Mrs. Beebe said.

Rep. O'Hara Hurt In Boat Accident

WASHINGTON (AP) — Rep. James G. O'Hara, D-Mich., has entered Bethesda Naval Hospital as a result of a boating accident Aug. 2, an aide reported.

The aide said that O'Hara probably would be in the hospital for a couple of days. O'Hara said he thought five ribs were cracked, the aide said.

O'Hara was sailing his own small boat on the Severn River near Annapolis when he was hit by a large sailboat. The congressman was struck by the hull of the larger boat, the aide said.

Prison Inmates 'Don't See Light,' Go On Rampage

DETROIT (AP) — An inmate disturbance erupted at the Detroit House of Correction Sunday night when the prison was plunged into darkness for more than an hour by an electrical power failure.

More than 160 inmates rampaged through the darkened corridors for five hours—fighting, smashing windows and breaking lockers—before prison guards could restore order. Fourteen prisoners were treated for cuts and bruises.

The prison, which houses some 1300 inmates, has no emergency power system.

The power failure was caused by a raccoon who became trapped in the Plymouth Township power substation and blew a fuse when he was electrocuted, a Detroit Edison spokesman said. The blackout left about 2,700 homes in east Detroit without electrical power from 10:50 p.m. to midnight Sunday.

'Daniel Boone' Loses Out To 'Young Rebels'

By CYNTHIA LOWRY

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — "Daniel Boone," who over the years appeared to have been primarily responsible for winning the American Revolution—with a little help from his friends—has been retired by NBC. But his cause will be carried on next season by ABC's "Young Rebels."

The action series set in 1777 is hung on three young people who are supposed to be members of a secret American patriotic group called "The Yankee Doodle Society." Its television genealogy apparently includes "Mod Squad" and "The Scarlet Pimpernel."

Since ABC has placed the series in an early Sunday evening time period, euphemistically referred to as a "family viewing hour" the series obviously is aimed at the under-18 audience. Certainly it is youth-oriented in cast and viewpoint.

Rick Ely, the youthful blond actor who is one of its three leads, explained that while some liberties have been taken with historical fact in the interest of dramatic impact, "our scripts are more concerned with the philosophy of the revolution and the moral wrongs that were committed."

Ely, who has had little television exposure, will play a young Pennsylvanian, Jeremy Larkin, who is believed to be a lazy, ne'er-do-well, but is really the leader of the underground patriots and, under a secret commission from General Lafayette himself, a captain in the Continental Army.

In what has become almost standard casting practice since "Mod Squad" and "Mission: Impossible," there is another young patriot—an apothecary whose knowledge of science permits him to pull off such coups as exploding powder kegs with electricity discovered only a few years before by Benjamin Franklin—and another who is a blacksmith and former slave.

"He bought his freedom, but we don't know exactly how," explained Ely. Generally, though, there is a relationship between the young people and the young hammer away on it. I think that the years between 15 and 25 are a waking-up period; people over 25 are more likely to simmer down. When you are young, you are more likely to want to speak up or do something about injustices and inequities."

Ely, who looks like a teenager, is old enough to be divorced and the father of a 6-year-old daughter. A native of Indiana, Rick has had some stage experience. Although he has not appeared professionally as a single he has been signed by a record company and his first single will be released about the same time that "The Young Rebels" is launched opposite "Lassie" and "The Disney Hour" in mid-September.

"There is no connection between the two," said Ely, as though he really believed it.

2 Residents Back Wandering Bear; Killing Approved

DURANGO, Colo. (AP) — A character witness for a bear? Here's how it happened in La Plata county court:

William H. Hundley, a summer resident of Durango, was charged by conservation authorities with killing a yearling bear on Beaver Creek near Bayfield in Colorado's southwest corner. Hundley testified he shot the bear because he feared it would harm his wife.

Two other residents, who had made a pet of the bear, testified to its "good character." Judge Lester Sherman found Hundley innocent.
